Making Of The President

Vice-President George Bush ran a vigorous campaign in 1988 to beat democratic candidate Michael Dukakis by a more than an overwhelming majority of the votes.

Bush, who prior to the election was commonly referred to as wimpy, emerged as a strong leader, and what the Chicago Tribune called one of the most intelligent candidates to run for the presidential office.

Bush beat a campaign trail through small towns in the midwest and Illinois, stopping at I.S.U. to give a campaign speech to a large crowd of college students, along with U-High and other area high school students. He was supported at the rally by a visit from governor Jim Thompson, and country stars Crystal Gayle, and Loretta and Peggy Sue Lynn. He spoke about his qualifications, his opponent's lack of qualifications, and what he wanted to do for America.

Bush seemed to be what America wanted. His opponent talked of more government regulations, higher taxes and trying to promise all of the people everything. America seemed to be tired of the worn out Democratic sales pitch, as they have shown at the last few elections, making this election greatly resemble the 1980, and 1984 Reagan/Bush victories.

Making The Grade

Tests. Exams. Finals. We all love hearing those pleasant thoughts, right? Wrong! Final exams mean late nights spent studying, cramming, trying to learn everything in one night. For some, exams mean the end of school and a chance to get their grades up, but for others, exams mean the end of life as it is on planet earth. If you are a senior and a final exam is offered, it is completely up to you to decide if you want to take it. In other words, seniors don't have to take the final at the end of the year. I guess all a student can do is grin and bear them because they will always be with us. What's school without finals?

Get me out of here!

Making The Look

University High School is by far the most diverse in fashion aspects of any school in the area. We have no dress code and no uniforms to wear, so styles change from year to year. This season, the trend seems to be the tough look — faded torn jeans, a white T-shirt, and leather jacket complete the outfit.

Accessories also are an important part of the wardrobe, which could include anything from hats to thongs. But whatever students at U-High wear, blonde seems to be the hair color of choice.

Following his instinct, Tad Lewis runs away with the ball.

“Hey oh!”

Eyeing the competition, Jeff Polomsky decides Olympia will be no contest.

Pioneer junior running back Tad Lewis was the unstoppable force with 247 yards on 33 carries as University High was victorious over Olympia, 25-14, on homecoming night.

Lewis took control of the whole game while running for three touchdowns, which left the quarterback John Lipic room for little passing in which he completed 1-2 passes for 17 yards, an interception throw, and a 17 yard touchdown pass to senior receiver Aaron Vaughn.

There was little need to throw the ball, because their backs were running so well, as Scott Leefers added to the force with 41 yards on 12 carries.

The Pioneers obtained 301 yards total in offense, with 284 coming from the rush, and 17 from the pass.

In the first quarter, Olympia was the first to reach the goal line with a 2 yard run. Then U-High dealt with Lewis, with the first of his three touchdowns for the night. He ran for 18 yards on that play with Jon Fritzen adding the extra-point kick.

Before halftime came to a close, it was Lewis again as he reached the goal line with a one-yarder.

Early in the 3rd quarter, a Spartan pass was intercepted by Pioneer defensive back Jeff Polomsky which blossomed into a 17 yard touchdown pass from Lipic to Vaughn.

Then the last Pioneer touchdown came about halfway through the fourth quarter as Lewis dashed across the goal line for an 11 yard touchdown.

This night was truly a great one, as the Pioneers enjoyed a great homecoming victory.

Making The Plate

An increasing amount of personalized plates are popping up around U-High.

Plates are a unique and new way of expressing who you are and what you're all about, not only as a driver but as an individual. You may be especially pleased that you did in fact graduate; your year of graduation might be found on your plate. You might like the date you were born, which means more numbers. Some people, however, try to stay away from numbers (no easy feat) and describe their thoughts in compact little words or phrases. This page is filled with some of the best and most unique U-High has to offer:

Maria McCullough: SHARK
Sue Perry: SPERRY
Heather Blust: HAB
Chad Carlton: CHAD 100
Matt Hardy: YMCA
Chris Jenkins: UHIGH 1

Making The Change

Class Night was a time for Hellos and Goodbyes. The Senior class song reflected this: "Hello, Goodbye" by the Beatles.

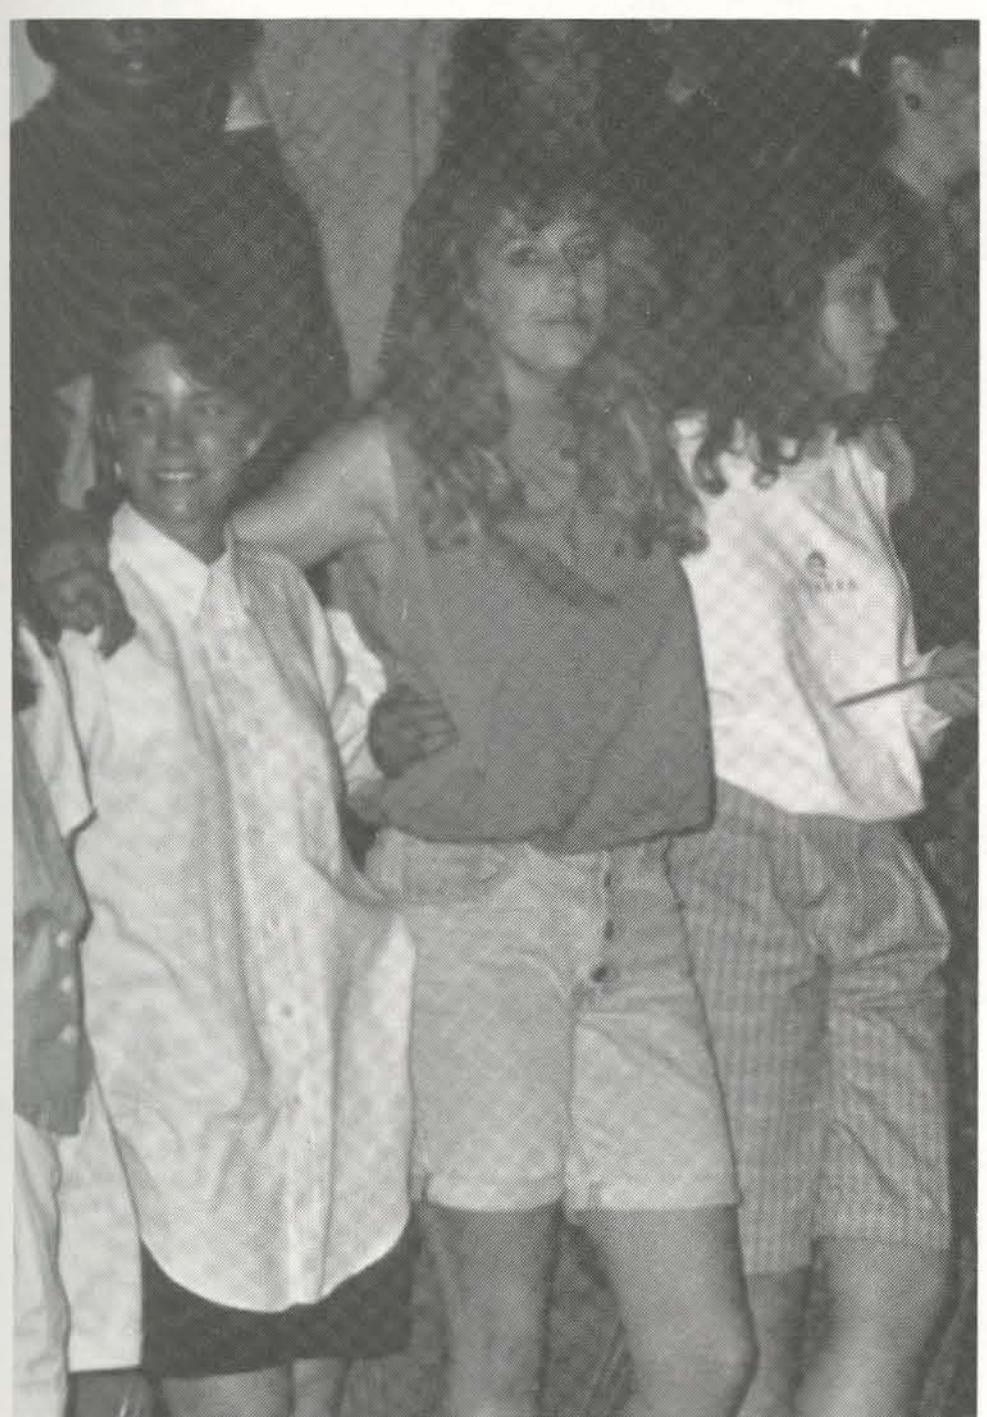

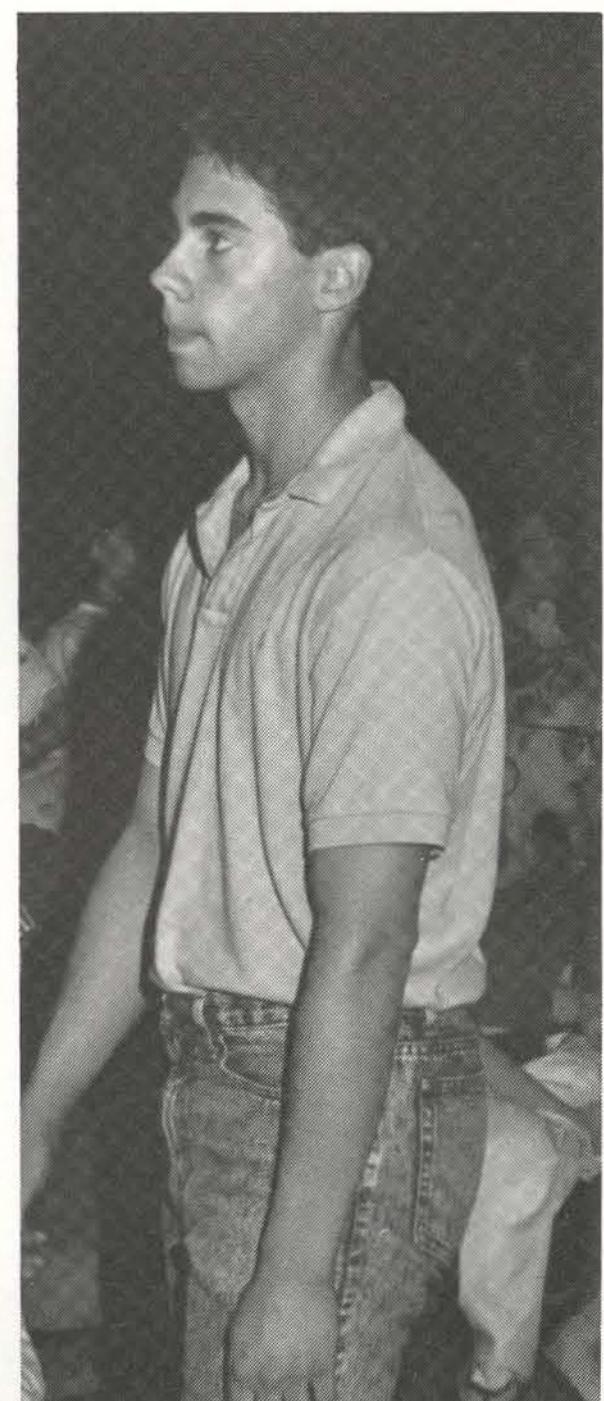

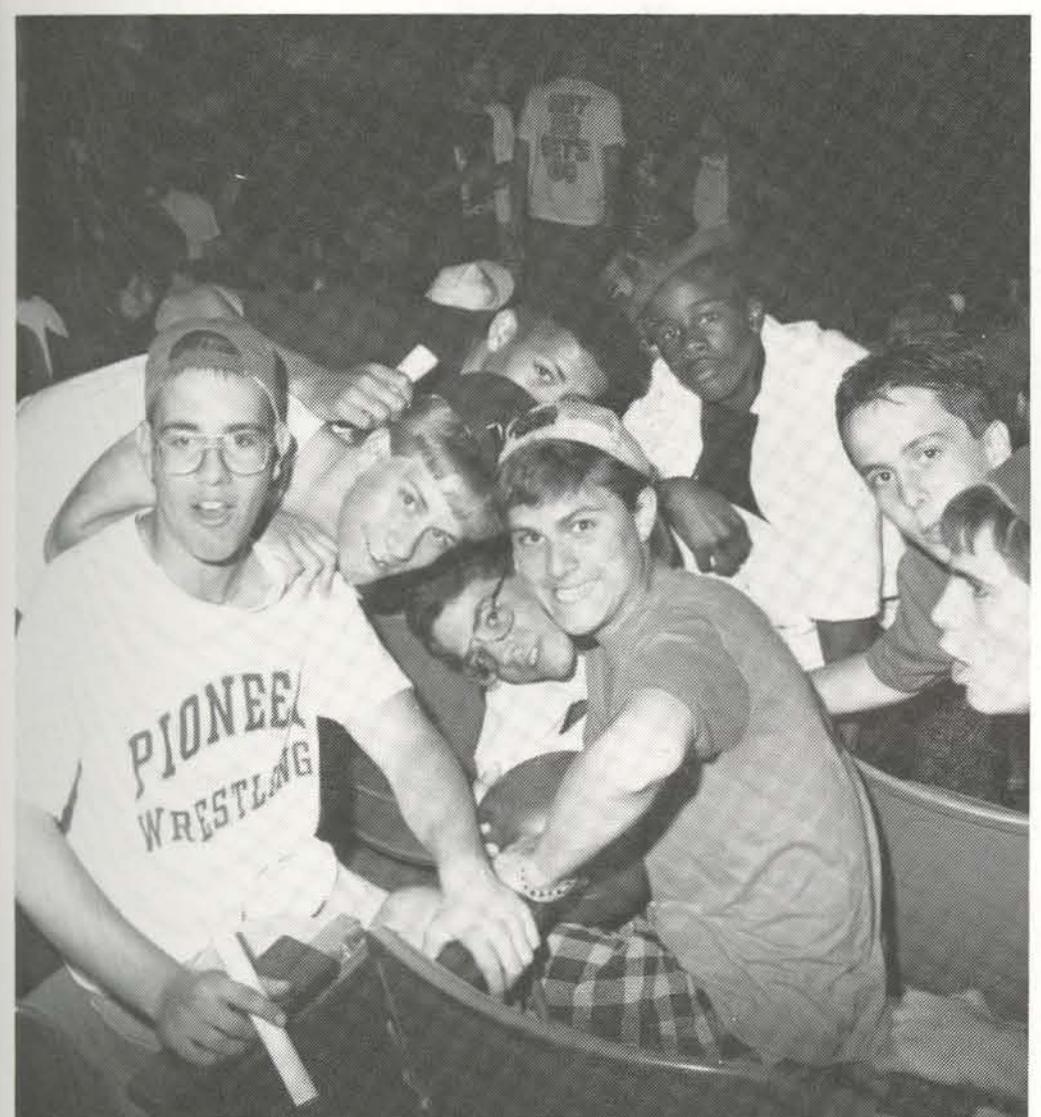

After the faculty skit, "Rock and Roll High School" the Class of 1989 presented, "The Search for Intelligent Life" a show focused on the main theme of Star Trek. The planets they visited were "places" around U-High. Some of these planets included: Libraria, Lounge Planet/Dance Planet, and the Pit Planet.

The Seniors presented gifts and passed the lamp of knowledge. They had difficulty getting it lit which led to speculate about??? The moving up of classes followed and the Seniors left the auditorium for the last time.

Although it was a sad time for the Seniors, excitement for the future was also evident, as the underclassmen rightfully assumed their new places.

Making The Future

As the year winds to the end, the most prestigious event occurs. Graduation is what every senior longs for. It is a time of growing up, leaving the structured high school life and the burden of school work. It is more than a ceremony and a diploma, but it is a time when we must jump out into the real world, possibly into the job market or to college. This is a time of remembering the good times and the bad.

For those who go on to college, they enter the world of higher education. Many high school students are totally amazed that this bizarre, unorthodox, and sometimes completely chaotic atmosphere is the place where the leaders of tomorrow come from. Scary, isn't it?

Those who enter the career world are also in for a shock. Aside from flipping burgers and some retail sales, most students have little or no idea about the work area. Businesses like State Farm, labor places like Rowe Construction, and sales like Sam Leman are the second and usually the last step to becoming an adult. So, the choices open to a high school graduate are unlimited, but it seems the responsibilities and worries are too!

Welcome Back Dance

The successful Welcome Back Dance was a time for checking things out; the freshmen checking out the school; the sophomores checking out the changes in everyone; the juniors checking out the guys and gals; and the seniors well, just checking it out. The Welcome Back Dance is a time for re-acquaintance, seeing old friends and meeting new ones, a time for positioning yourself in the school, and a time of releasing tension and stress of the first weeks of school dancing to the songs played by our own D.J. Kevin Kilhoffer. For many freshmen this was their first dance, and for the seniors their last. Excitement and anticipation of the year to come filled the night. The dance gave everyone a chance to get to know each other in a relaxed setting.

Out of the Jungle onto the Beach

The first two dances of the new year were the Beach dance and the Welcome to the Jungle dance.

The Jungle dance was a change of pace for the kids at U-High. They danced to the theme, "Welcome to the Jungle" by Guns and Roses. Everyone lived up the night by dancing "wildly" to other music. Pictures were taken from a jeep borrowed from Erik Bogren. All in all the whole night was a great time.

The other dance, which seems to be a favorite dance of the U-High students, is the Beach Dance, when everyone digs out their summer clothes and gets dressed for the Beach Bash. The theme this year was "Dare to be Bare." Some chose to follow this motto while others chose to keep warm.

State Eluded Them, But They Went The Extra Yard For Success.

Last year's Elite Eight playoff experience paid off big for this year's statebound team, which ended their season at 6-4.

With returning lettermen and captains Scott Leefers and Aaron Vaughn, the Pioneers finished 2nd in the Corn Belt Conference behind cross-town rival Central Catholic. The Pioneers made it to state on an at-large selection, but were knocked out in the first round by Monticello, 21-0.

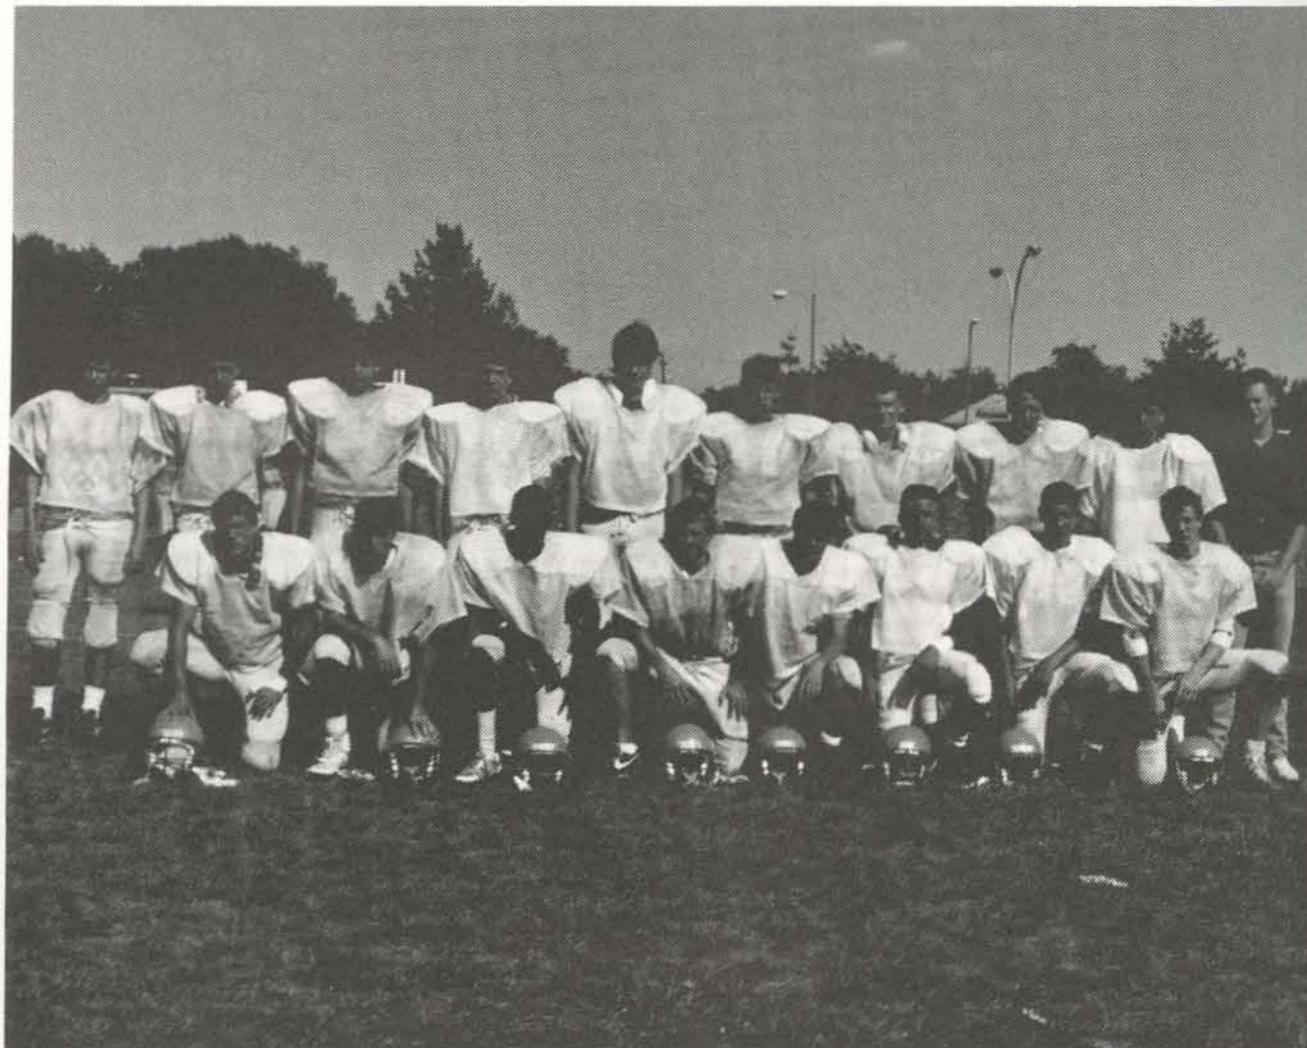

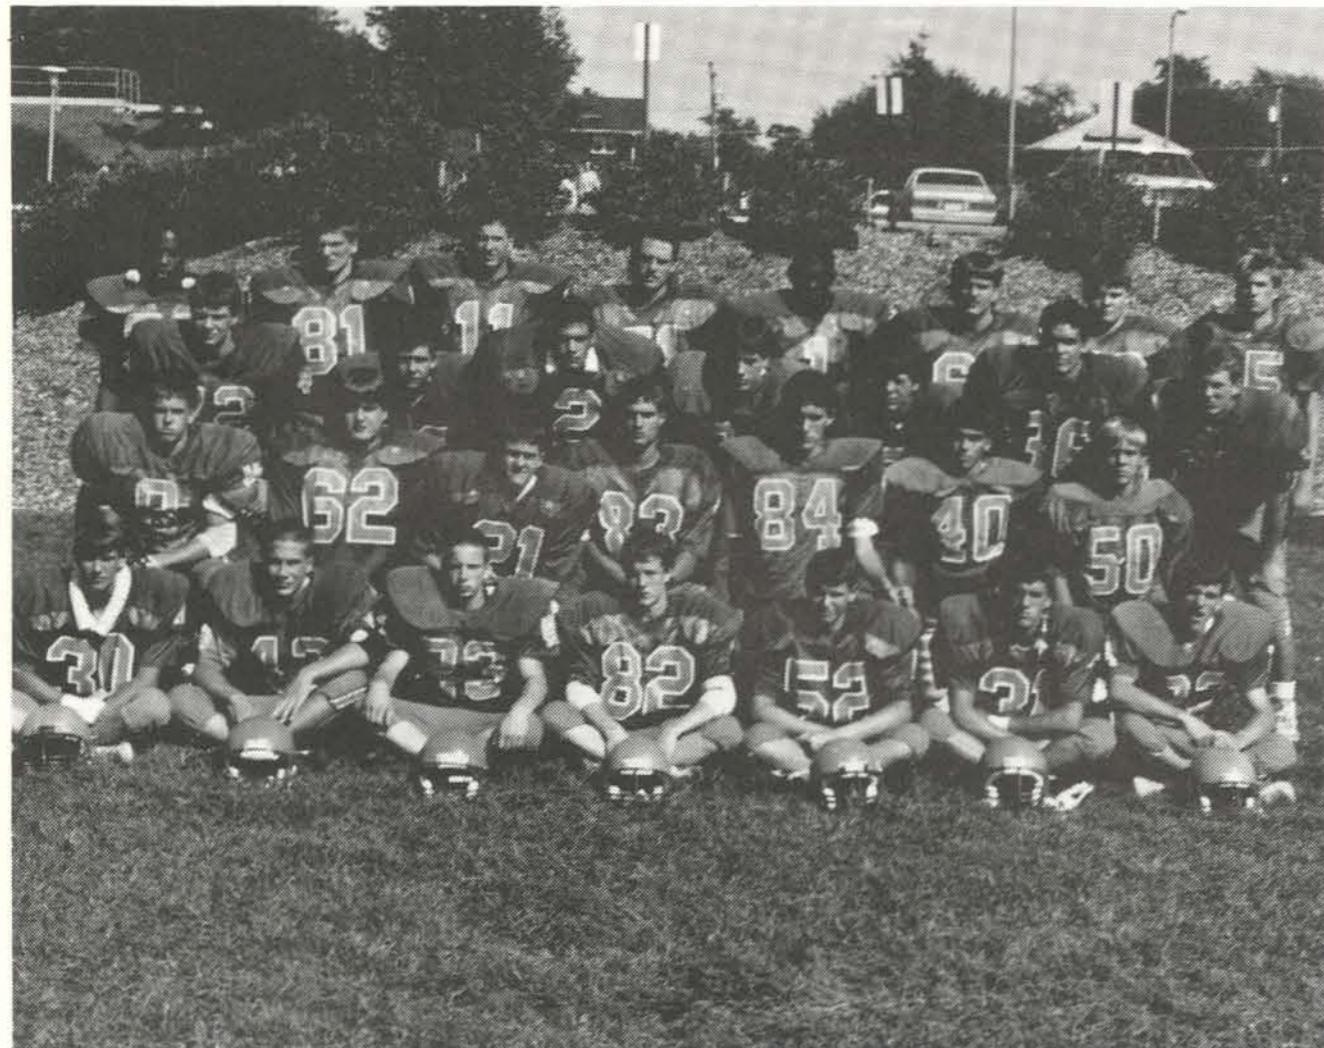

The highlight of the year was at Intercity, when U-High romped Central Catholic 37-0.

All-Conference first team selections for U-High were Scott Leefers, Brian Beverly, Doug Davis, Tad Lewis, and Scott Thompson. The two second team selections were Dan Wolfgang and Aaron Vaughn.

The team MVP's were Scott Leefers and Tad Lewis who produced the rushing yardage for the team with Lewis rushing for over 1,000 yards for the second season in a row.

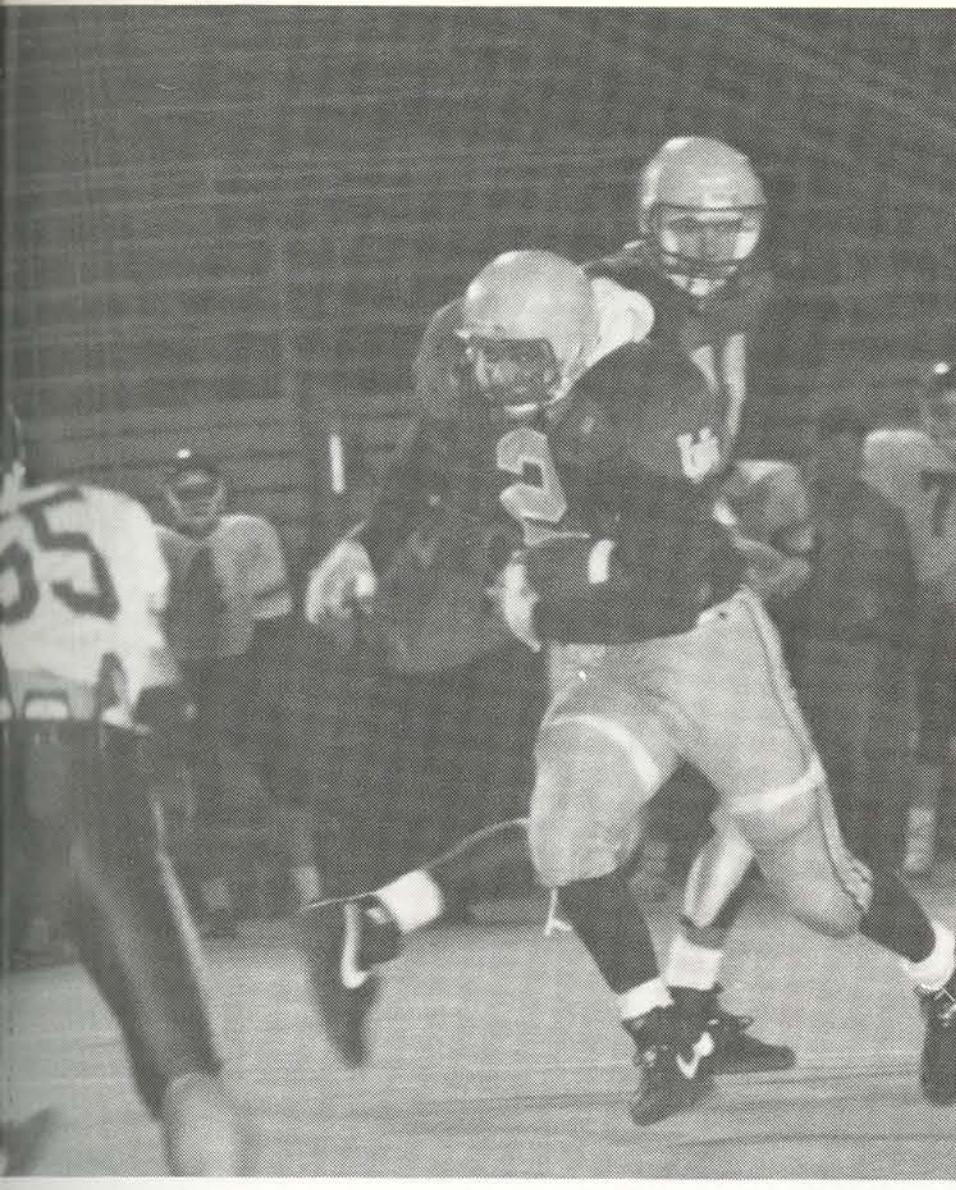

The Varsity can look forward to help from next year's squad, as the sophomores finished at 5-3, and the freshmen blew their opponents away with a perfect 8-0 season.

Breaking away for extra yardage is Tad Lewis.

The lady spikers ended their season at 26-6 and an Elite Eight finish in State competition.

The girls easily won Regionals by defeating Saybrook-Arrowsmith and Tri-Valley.

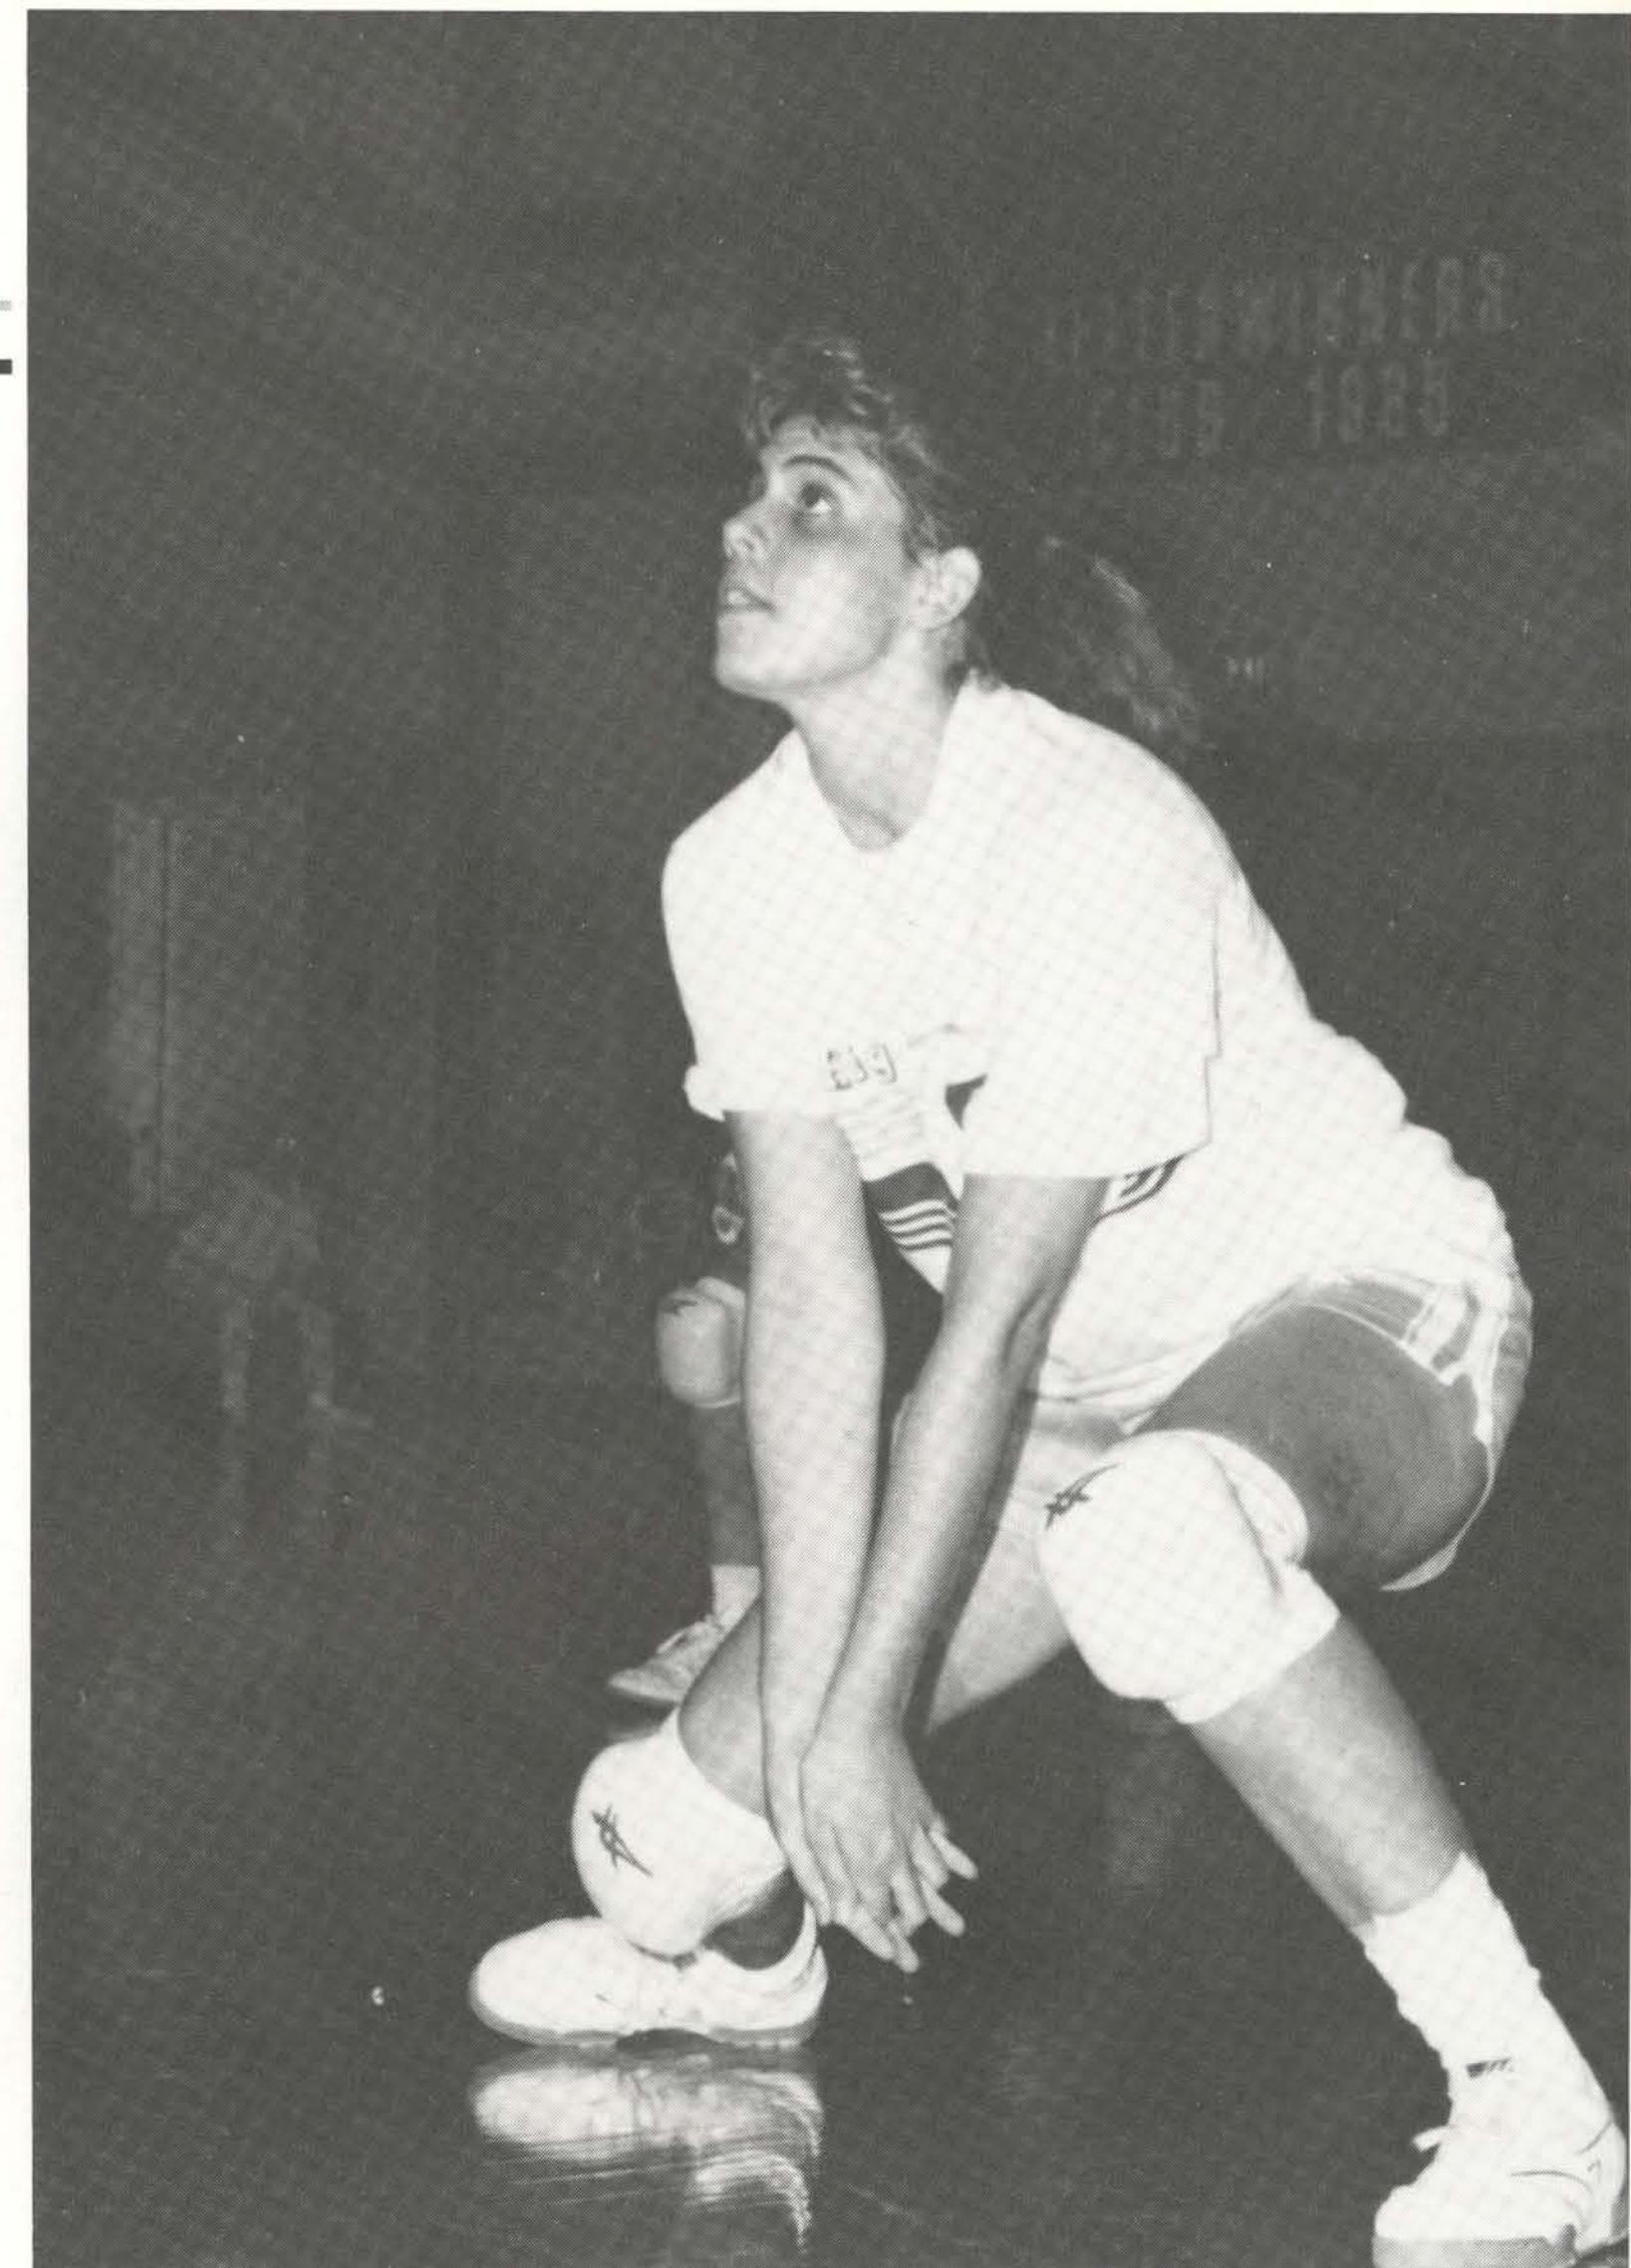

The Sectionals were no tougher as they defeated Dunlap and conference rival Olympia 15-6, 15-11.

Westville was the Super-Sectional foe as U-High romped on to win 15-8, 15-6 in straight sets.

The first round of the state action showed that our efforts just weren't enough as Wheaton St. Francis edged U-High 15-13, 14-16, 11-15, good enough for eighth place.

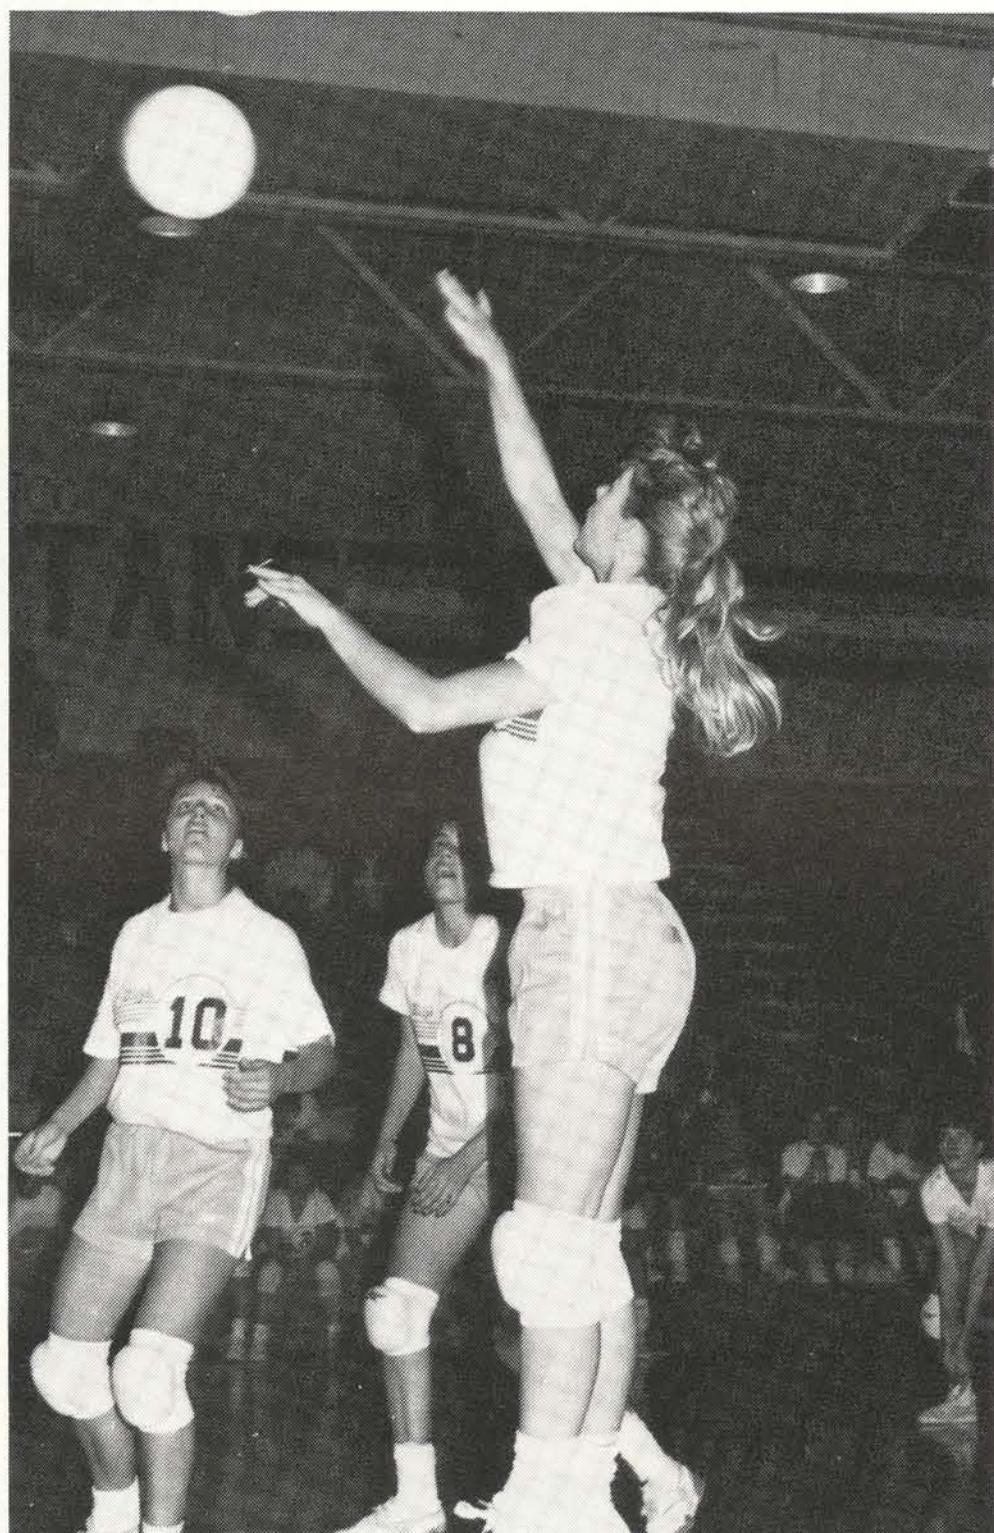

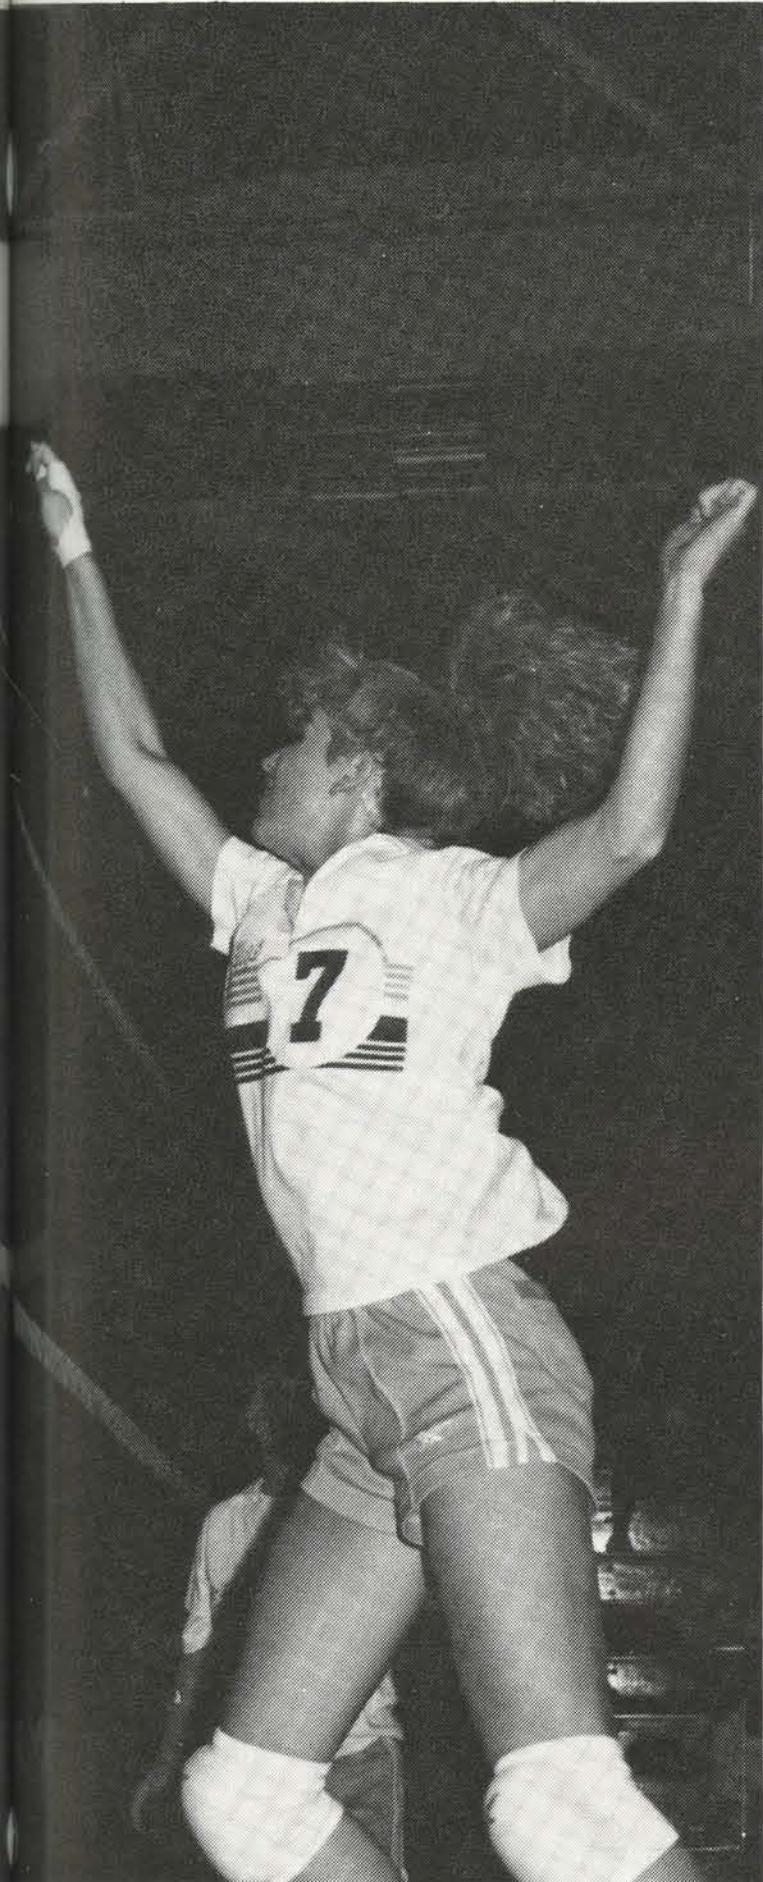

The players stressed good team unity all year long as they landed 1st team All-Conference selections Lisa Raimondi, (captain) Melissa Woods, and (captain) Kelly Christenson along with 2nd team selections such as Jody Gordon, Michelle Strawser, and Laurie Rehm.

Chipping Away At State

Golf Drives To Fourth Place

Once again, the U-High golf team did well by placing fourth in state competition. While the Pioneers concluded their season at 15-3, they placed 2nd at Intercity, 2nd in Conference, 2nd in Regionals, and 1st in Sectionals.

Tom Ocheltree, the team captain and MVP, joined Tom Baer and Mark DeVary by qualifying from Regionals to Sectional play. DeVary and Ocheltree also qualified for State and DeVary placed 17th in state individually.

The letterwinners were Tom Ocheltree, Nick Slahor, Mark DeVary, Dan Kim, John Handy, Mark Briggs, and Tom Baer. JV members were Pat Hafner, Brian Wolfe, Jason Alexander, Jason Fann, and Jeff Graham.

A Rebuilding Season

This year's lady cagers started their season with a new coach, Marla Maupin. The girls, who had the services of only 2 seniors, struggled the whole season and managed a 3-19 record. The Pioneers placed two team members on the Corn Belt second team All-Conference — Katy Crist and Jody Gordon.

The MVP award went to Katy Crist and Jody Gordon, and the Most Improved award went to Falshunee Bradford.

The letterwinners were Linette Wagner, Salli Lawson, Katy Crist, Sue Phelan, Falshunee Bradford, and Jody Gordon, who led the team in scoring with 12 points per game and 8.9 rebounds per game.

Up And Down But Not Down And Out.

The boys' basketball program rebuilt their season after losing four starters to graduation and having only one returning starting letterman.

The boys ended their season at 6-6 in the Corn Belt Conference and 9-15 overall in Chuck Gault's last season as coach.

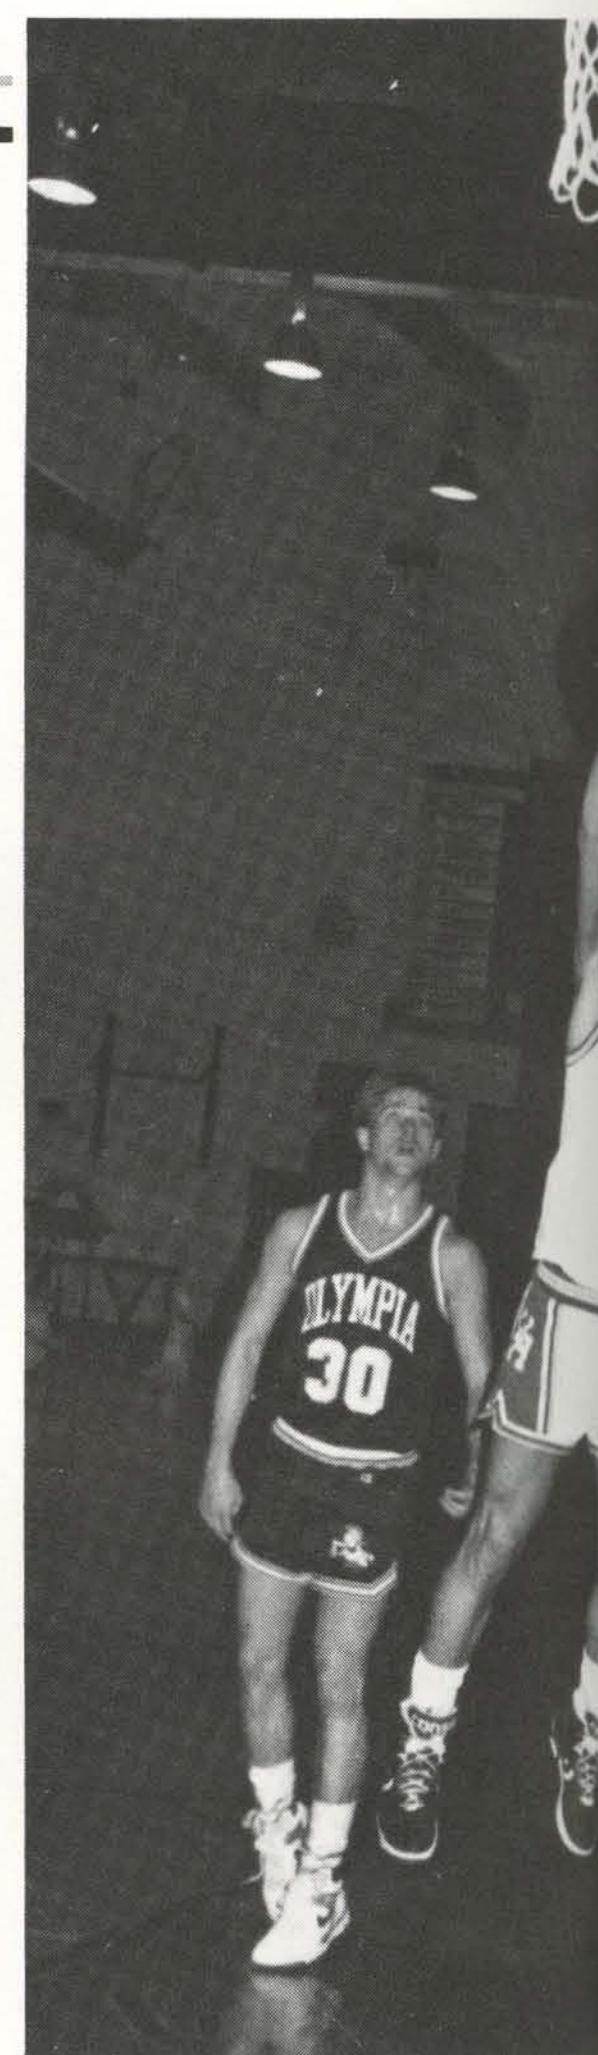

The players were up and down all season due to lack of experience on the varsity level; 1988 seemed to be a bad first half for the team, but they started the new year out with some wins. The letterwinners were Captain Steve Schultz, Captain John Lipic, Rod Graf, Erich Maschoff, Matt Overton, Clark Rogers, Tad Lewis, Shawn Smithson, and Eric Graff.

The Pioneers relied on their 1-2 punch all season long with MVP Steve Schultz averaging 17 points per game and John Lipic with 16 points per game. John Lipic also provided about 11 rebounds a game. Corn Belt All-Conference honors went to Steve Schultz — unanimous 1st team and John Lipic — 2nd team.

The freshmen basketball team triumphed as Intercity champs with a record of 13-4.

U-HIGH PIONEERS

Wrestler Places Third In State

This year's wrestlers, under the direction of Coach Christenson, went 11-11 using the leadership of only two seniors. The underclassmen took it upon themselves to fill in the gaps.

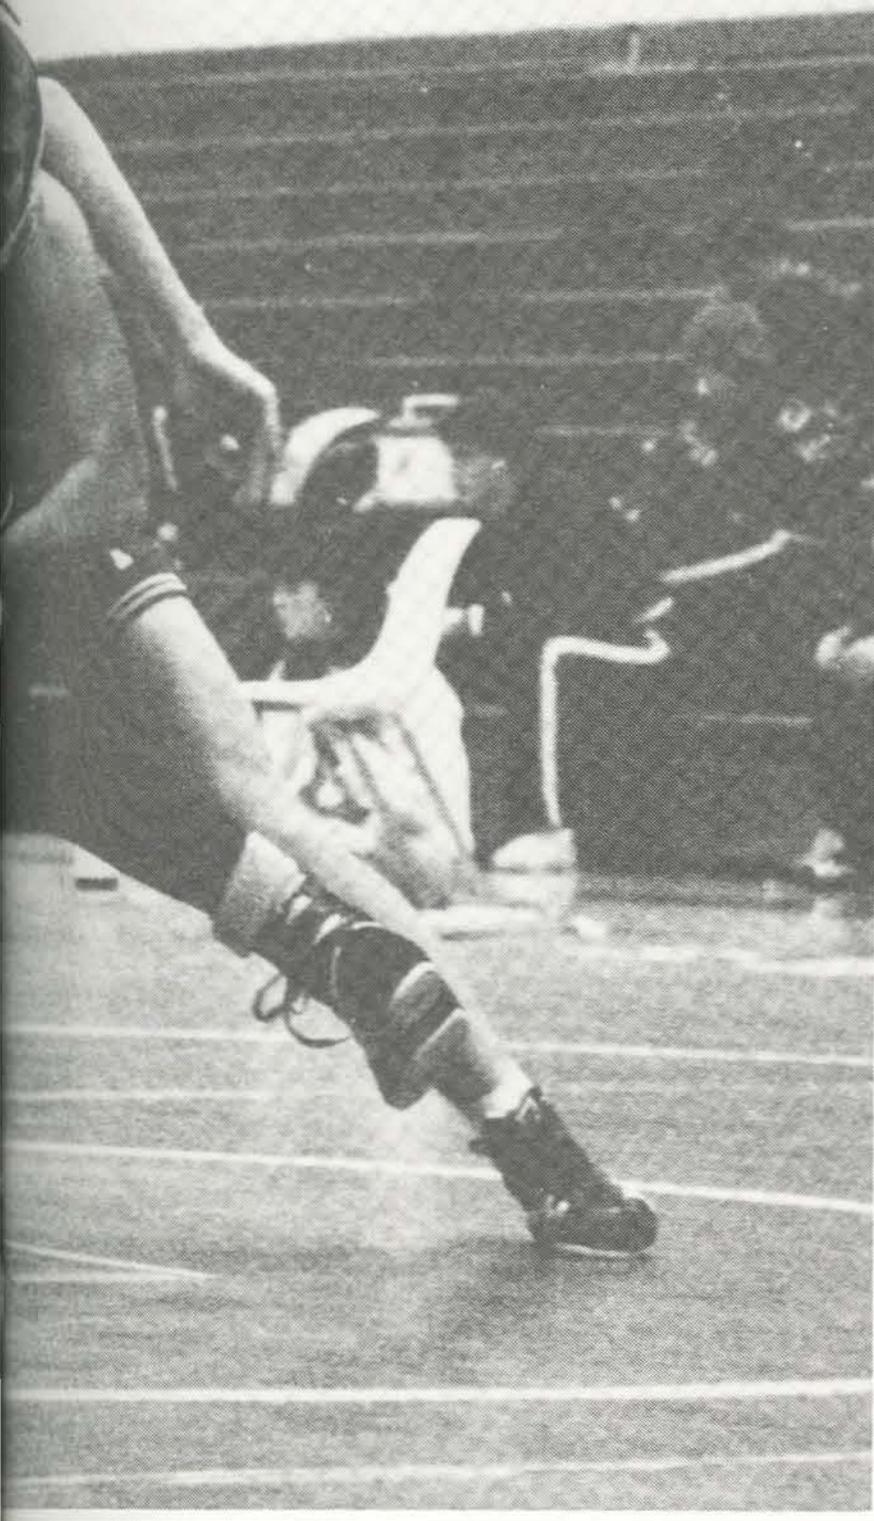

Senior MVP Chris Yeagle led the way for the Pioneers as he accumulated a record 40 wins for U-High. Yeagle also finished third in state at 112 pounds, recorded the most takedowns at 102 and was awarded the Intercity Wrestler of the Year.

Following in Yeagle's footsteps were Cory Christenson at 130, who compiled a record of 34-9 and most team points with 182, co-captain Brian Nourie at 135 with a 33-10-2 record, Kurt Kuskie at 145 with a 22-10-1 record, Rich Corry at 160 and a record of 15-10-1, and co-captain Scott Thompson at 189 with a 26-9 record. The wrestlers that advanced to the sectionals were Yeagle, Christenson, Nourie, Corry, and Thompson.

7-2 Record Helps Send Freshman Swimmer To State

Under the direction of Coach Scott the boys' swim team compiled a 7-2 record. With the leadership of the lone senior captain B.J. Armstrong, the swimmers tied for first place at the Rams Relays at Peoria Manual.

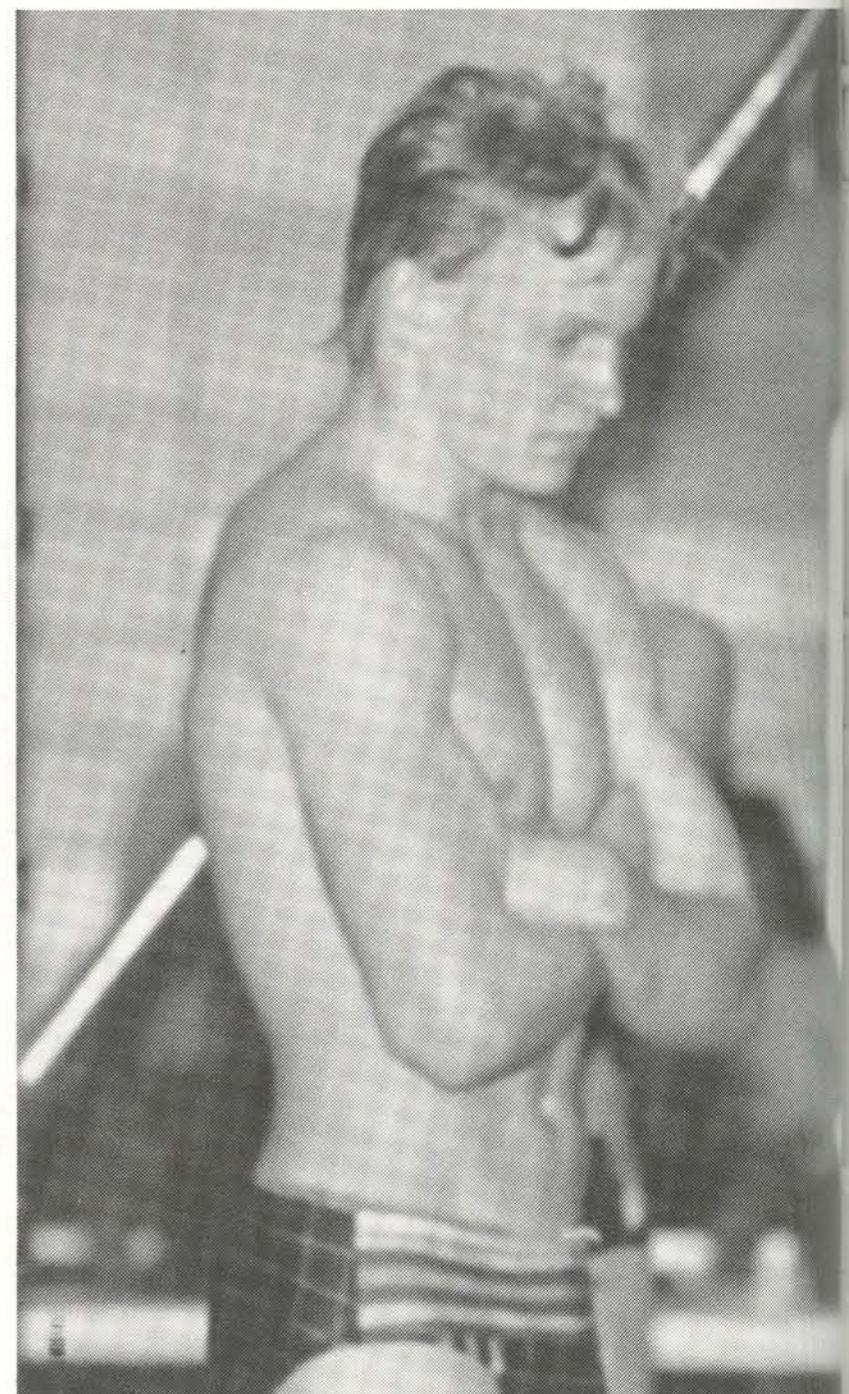

The freshmen seemed to do it all as Ben Gerdes, Steve Scott, Tom Horenkamp, Kirk Mottram, and Josh Wilson excelled well in their roles. The boys appear to have high hopes for the future as the letterwinners were M.V.P. B.J. Armstrong, Chad Jessen, Sean McPeak, Chris Grotbo, Ben Gerdes, Tom Horenkamp, Kirk Mottram, Josh Wilson, Ron Swan, and Steve Scott, who qualified for state in the 100 breaststroke with a time of 1:03.52.

Softball: Regroups In Mid-Season

The girls' softball team, coached by Charleen Lehnen, finished their season with a 14-10 record with the leadership of only four seniors. At one time their record was 1-8, but with perserverance and hard work the girls roughed out the rest of the season, winning thirteen of the last fifteen games.

Three seniors received 1st team All-Conference honors: Heather Blust — catcher, Katy Crist — outfield, and Kelly Christenson — utility player.

Two other teammates received 2nd team All-Conference honors: Michelle Strawser — pitcher (10-6) and Denise Benjamin — 3rd base.

The letterwinners were Kelly Christenson, Heather Blust, Katy Crist, Melissa Woods, Heidi Deffenbaugh, Ann Mackin, Michelle Strawser, Ketra Slayton, Dawn Kelley, Karen Truttmann, and Denise Benjamin.

Sweet Sixteen

The Varsity baseball team, coached by Jim Scott, set many goals for this season. The team had an up and down season at the beginning of the year with injuries the main culprit.

The team kept fighting back and won the title of Intercity Champs; they also captured the Redbird Classic in Metamora, the Regional and placing in the top sixteen of the state.

The captains of the team were Derek Johnson and Andy Copenhaver. Johnson also won MVP status.

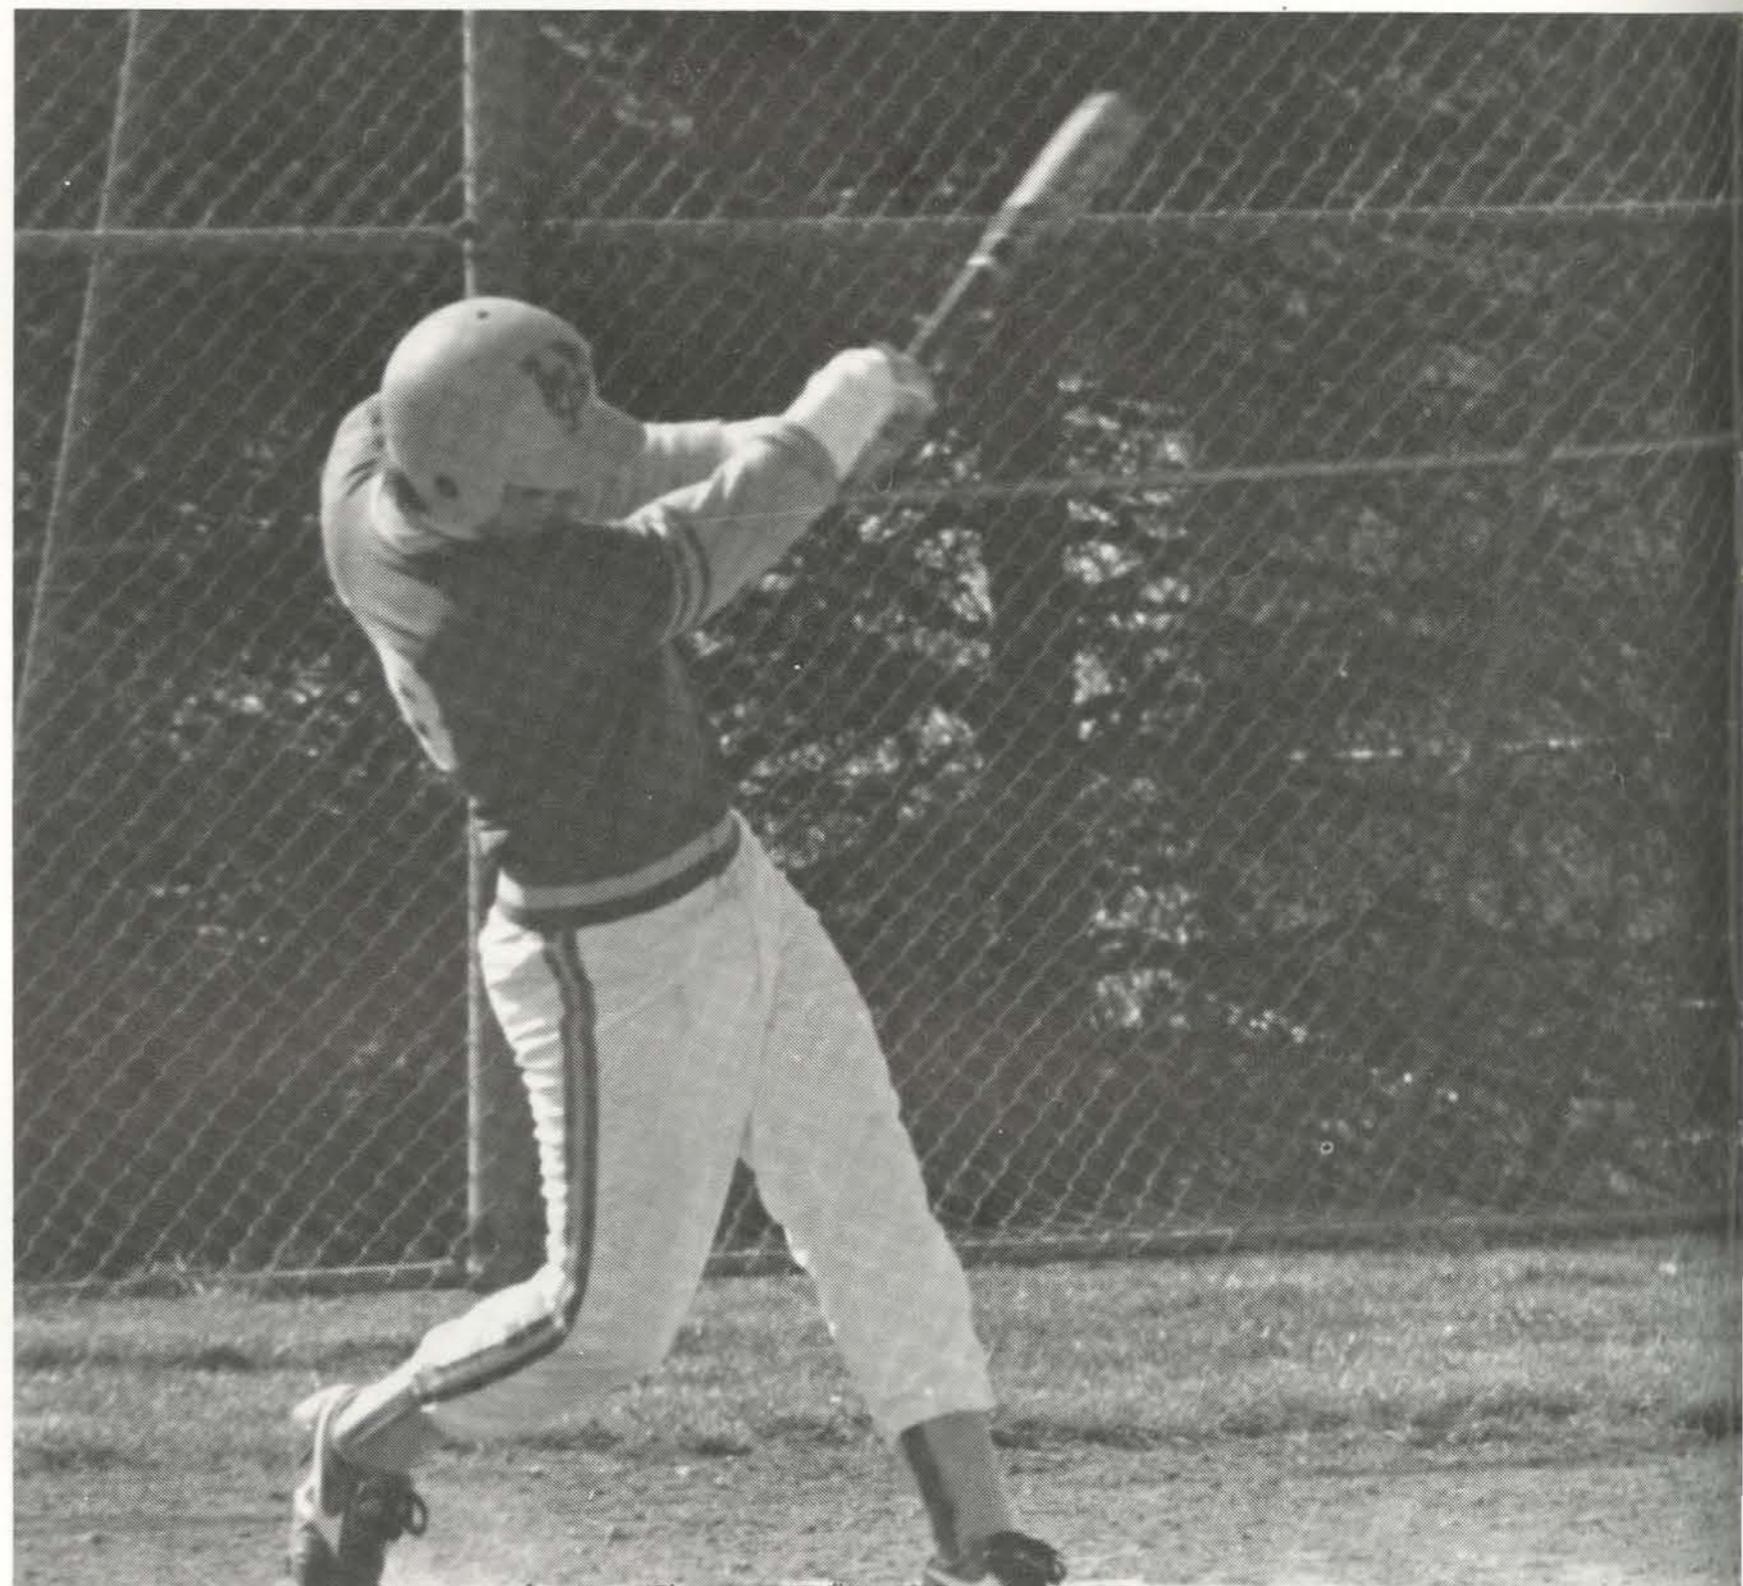

All-Conference first team selections were A. Copenhaver, B. Cole, S. Schulz, M. Overton, and D. Johnson.

Letterwinners were A. Copenhaver, A. DeVary, B. Cole, M. Overton, S. Smithson, C. Rogers, S. Schulz, D. Johnson, B. Read, G. McCleary, E. Graff, and J. Graham.

Senior Captures Second In State

The girls' track squad headed by first year coach Mary Scales have to be proud of what they did because not many people seemed dedicated enough to stay with the team. The roster dwindled down quite a bit, but the attitude of the others just became more positive about making adjustments to make the year a better one. The leadership consisted of the four senior girls: Rebecca Bryant, Renee Roberts, Linnaea Schroerer, and Lamona Wagner. Their hard work and dedication showed as the team ended with a 8-5 record and a good mind set for next season.

The MVP was Rebecca Bryant and the Perserverance Award went to Lamona Wagner, and the Most Improved was Amy O'Connor. Rebecca Bryant was also 2nd in State in the 800, in which she broke the old U-High record with a new time of 2:18.8. She was also honored for having the top time in the 800 in the Pantagraph Track Honor Roll. Another U-High record had been broken-in the 3200 Relay which consisted of Linette Wagner, Amy O'Conor, Becky Steiner, and Rebecca Bryant — they had a time of 10:43.5.

The letterwinners were Rebecca Bryant, Renee Roberts, Linnaea Schroerer, Lamona Wagner, Linette Wagner, Erin Malone, Amy O'Connor, Becky Steiner, and Dana Baker. JV members were Andrea Weber and Shelly Armstrong.

5th Straight Title

Winning their 5th straight track sectional is an 'outstanding feat' according to Coach Jack Eddy which is assisted by Curt Christenson and Lester Hampton. Their overall dual meet record was 12-2 and also did well in the big meets too — such as winning the Clinton Carnival, placing 2nd in the Masters Relays, placing 2nd in the Corn Belt Conference, and 1st in the Sectional.

The captains of the team were Scott Leefers, Brian Nourie, and Aaron Vaughn. The MVP's were Jason Chambers and Paul Langellier.

It Could Have Been Better

The boys' tennis team, under 1st year coach Marla Maupin, put together a rebuilding year in which they finished 4-7. They didn't quite reach their goal of the .500 mark, but they had a lot of inexperience due to the abundance of juniors and sophomores. Next year they should meet their standards and goals with the talent and experience from the juniors and sophomores.

The letterwinners were Kevin Laub, Chuck Chow, Matt Hardy, Jason McEvers, Mike Fitzgerald, Bill Hall, Tad Lewis, Bryan Simkins, and John Malito.

The JV players were Steve Bushfield, Eric Anderson, Matt Hawkinson, Andy Adams, Tom Griffith, Cary Devore and Fred Freehill.

U-High cheerleaders started from square one this year with their new coach, Mrs. Basolo. Things took a new change. Cheerleading, which was once thought of as an easy activity, became a strenuous sport. When asked about the fall squad, Varsity cheerleader Amy Fritson said, "It was a lot of hard work, but I'm glad I went out, although it was strange being the only senior out there."

Not only did they build spirit at the games, but also before gametime by making cupcakes and pillow cases for the teams, not to mention making signs and posters. The basketball cheerleaders put on a real show with their floor cheers and mounts. It was definitely a good year for the squads and the whole school showed their appreciation.

The Clarion would never get off the ground if it weren't for the talent and patience of one man most of the U-High student body never sees.

He visits Room 204A once a month, slipping in quietly to organize, encourage, occasionally reprimand, frown, and frequently smile at the sometimes off-the-wall ideas of our young staff, who nevertheless continue to dream dreams about what this yearbook could really be all about.

Jon Kauffman is a good person, one who cares about this U-High yearbook staff; he loves to listen to their comments, and watches them closely when they're in heated discussions about color coordination, or cover artwork, or layout patterns. He's proud of them, like a father would be proud of his kids when they've thought long and hard on an idea and then created something absolutely beautiful.

There's an editor on this staff everyone calls "Mom"; the yearbook is his "baby." It seems Jon likes to hear that. He knows, finally, after all the training, that this staff has the beginnings of understanding that this is more than a yearbook; it represents a part of the intricate history of this school. Their names, and their craftsmanship, will forever be standing to judgement of dozens of classes to come.

Jon was there to help prepare for that judgement call. From the staff and their advisor: Thanks, Jon.

Journalism is a class and an extra-curricular activity, consisting of a yearbook and a newspaper staff. The Clarion staff this year consisted of eight hard-working members who put your yearbook together. The class also spent one day at Wesleyan at a yearbook seminar. Each student or group of students worked on a section: classes, sports, faculty, ads, and clubs and organizations.

The newspaper staff consisted of eight members who published issues of the Clarionette. They also spent a day touring the Pantagraph office. The newspaper staff writes creative stories and takes pictures for the paper. Miss Marshall sponsors both the newspaper and the yearbook. Both staffs accomplished a lot and had fun.

Brome & Beyond

The Creative Writing Club, sponsored by Mrs. Clesson, is a combination of Brome and Beyond writers and plenty of hard work. Officers Katina Petsas and John Benson keep the group under control, having more meetings towards spring. The Creative Writing Club has submitted works to the Scholastic Writing Awards and the Parents Too Soon Rock and Romance project. Some past year activities have included the Illinois High School Festival, the publication and desemination of Brome and Beyond, and attendance at the Western Illinois University workshops. The Brome section is for seniors competing for the Brome award only. The Beyond section is for anyone's masterpieces, even faculty! The Brome and Beyond is published once a year, having the main purpose of encouraging creative writing and offering awards for talented writers. The club will end the year on a "creative" note.

The Alternatives program is a peer leader program jointly sponsored by U-High and Lighthouse, a comprehensive substance abuse treatment center located in Bloomington, Illinois. The program, kicked off with a two day inservice, is directed primarily toward the ninth and tenth grade students but is open to anyone who needs assistance. The sponsors, J.D. Hawkins, Mr. Knight, and two people from Lighthouse meet once a month to decide what will be discussed with the alternatives in their next inservice, usually two days later. The inservices inform the peer leaders about topics and ideas which should be brought up in future Phase meetings by the the two alternatives assigned to that group. A major feature of the program is the use of junior and senior volunteers as role models. For this reason, being just a "good" student isn't enough. The person must be a good school citizen, be able to demonstrate that they are not using drugs and/or alcohol, and firmly believe in themselves and that it is not necessary to resort to such means of relief. After all, the purpose is to enforce wellness, not sickness. The Alternatives program isn't just another club. It is one which is demanding yet rewarding and one that reaches out to all of U-High.

Math Club

The math club this year consisted of twenty members who expressed a love for mathematics. The members met and worked on math worksheets. This year they qualified and placed second overall at the regionals held on March 11 at ICC. The members competed in Algebra I, Algebra II, pre-calculus, geometry and calculator competitions. There was also a freshman-sophomore, and junior-senior eight person competition and a two person competition. The members of the regional team, for the first time in U-High history, qualified for the 1989 State Math Contest held at ISU April 29. In the state contest, the team placed 19th overall with a 4th place in the team essay competition, a 7th place in the calculating competition, and a 9th place in the 2 person competition.

Teen Republicans

The main objective of the Teen Republicans is to get people to meet together as a forum and exchange ideas. The Teen Republicans meet together most Mondays with the Teen Democrats to try to discuss different issues by debating the pros and cons. This may seem to be a quite boring event but once you start listening and talking to others, it is a very unusual experience no one should miss. Chris Jenkins is the president of the group. The group attended the visit of republican George Bush when he spoke at ISU and they followed the 1989 presidential election very carefully, urging him on for the victory. Any teen can join this vivacious republican group. Don't miss your chance!

Making Music

Band is an extra-curricular activity and a class that meets at 2:00 every day. Band begins at a one week band camp in the summer where they learn the field show. There are three different parts of band: marching band, which performs at home football games, parades, and competitions; pep band, which performs at home basketball games, and concert band. Last year, the band was over one hundred members strong, including flags! The band has a lot of school spirit. Last year the band marched in the Thanksgiving parade in Philadelphia and they also toured Washington D.C. This year they are planning a trip to Los Angeles, California.

The U-High color guard, or flag squad, is combined with the band to march at all home football games, parades, and competitions. Their sponsor, Mary Jo Stepunic, choreographs the routines and holds two practices a week. To be on the flag squad, it is important to take part in 2:00 band, come to the evening practices, and work hard on all the routines. Freshmen through seniors are invited to be in flags.

While the flags perform in the fall, the pioneerettes, or poms, perform in the spring. This year, twelve girls were selected to be poms, and those twelve performed at all home basketball games. Their sponsor, Kelly Fulton, a senior at ISU, and captain of the Coryphees, choreographed all routines. Poms, like flags, have two practices a week. This year the poms got new uniforms — Thanks, Mr. Victor!

U-High Fine Arts

U-High's Madrigals are a select group of singers that perform around the twin cities. Auditions for Madrigals are in the fall, and anyone with a good voice is eligible to audition. The group is divided into Girl's Madrigals (all female members) and Madrigals (male and female members). This fall the Madrigals performed at a dinner at Jumer's.

U-High Chorus, a very active group of singing individuals, is something that U-High has grown to know, love, and be recognized for. Along with sponsor, Mrs. Issacson, the chorus officers help to keep the group organized. They are as follows: Tom Cullen, Kelly Christenson, Heather Dorothy, Kim Doss, Elizabeth Honn, Cory Jones, and Marty Prochnow. Their 1988-89 season has been very successful. Besides performing at many home football and basketball games, they have shown their talents at the University of Illinois Choral Consortium Feb. 18, the combined concert at Metcalf Feb. 23, the combined concert with Chenoa and University High Mar. 6, the fall concert, the holiday concert, U-High's open house Mar. 8, the pre-contest concert Apr. 4, the IHSA State Music Contest Apr. 8, and at the Senior Awards concert May 9. There are many objectives in Chorus, the main ones being to improve singing and music reading skills, to experience a wide variety of choral music, and just to enjoy singing. Anyone can register for Chorus I at registration. Students with intermediate to advanced skills who wish to enroll in Chorus II need to get permission from Mrs. Issacson. Chorus is a lot of hard work, but in the end, you won't regret it!

U-High's Dancing Troupe

Orchesis is the intercity dance troupe here at U-High. Orchesis meets at 7 A.M. daily. There are two parts of this class, Orchesis and Dance I. Dance I members take the class, but don't perform, while Orchesis members perform in two concerts a year, fall and spring. This year U-High hired a new instructor, Laurie Merriman. "Dance is a P.E. requirement, but the goal of the class is to learn dance and have fun," says Merriman. Orchesis is open to male and female students from NCHS and U-High. In the fall concert, Emotion in Motion, some of the dances were entitled "Red Red Wine," "Don't Worry, Be Happy," and "Oh Yeah!" The fall concert was held at NCHS. The spring concert was held at U-High. Entitled "Dancescapes," it included dances such as "Bicycle," "America," "Cry Little Sister" and "Another One Bites the Dust."

IT'S TIME FOR MOVIN' ON

We've traveled a long, long time — together,
And, there have been a lot of good things on the way.
But now, it's almost time for leavin',
And, the things I feel inside are very hard to say.

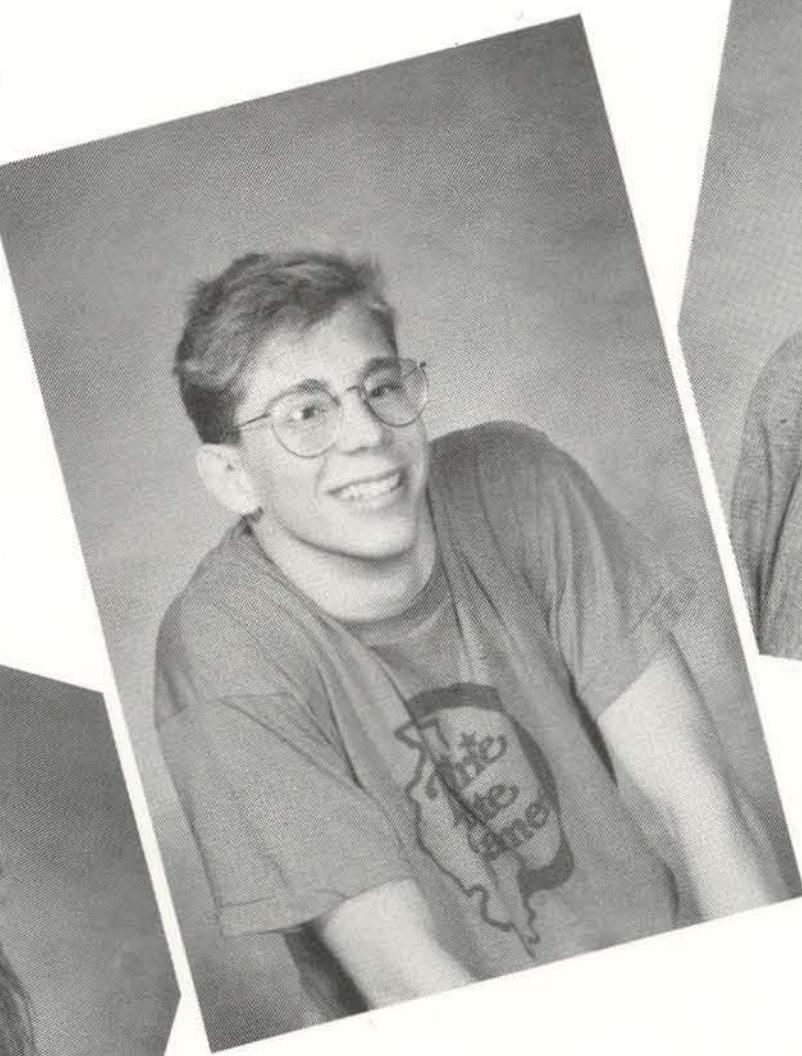

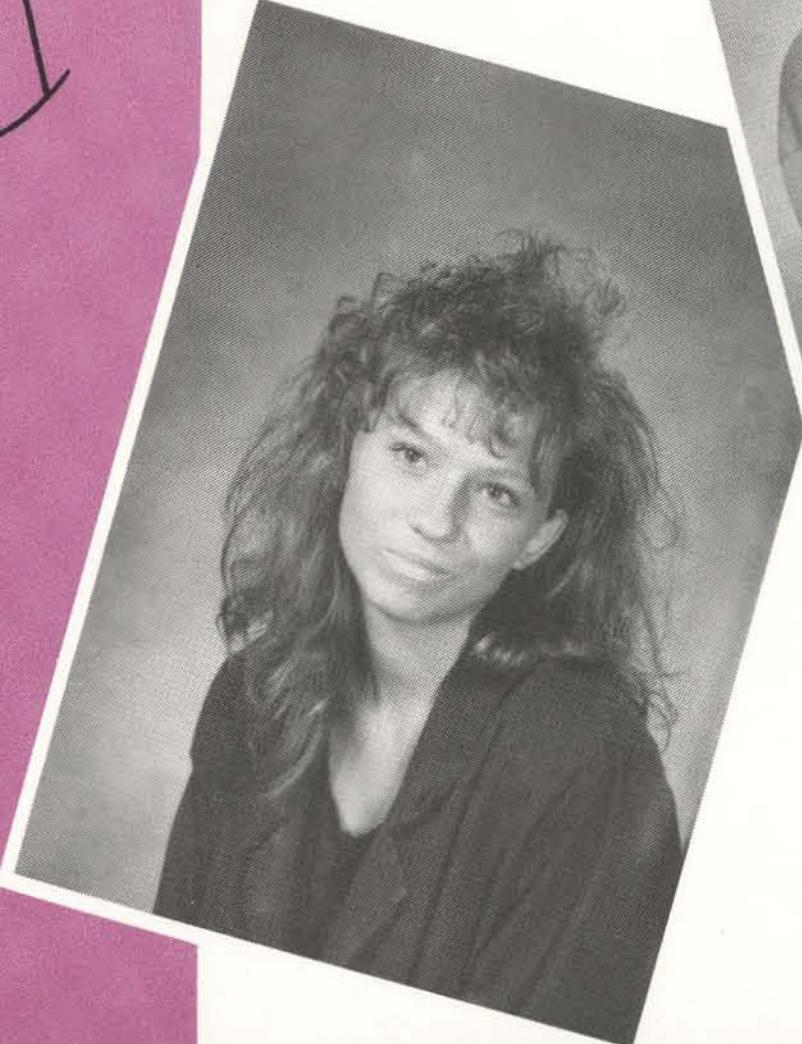

But, it's time for movin' on, my friend;
Hold back all the tears and sorrow.
It finally is time to go our separate ways.
And, I want to wish you well, my friend . . .
As we search for new tomorrows.
Go, as you must, but please . . .
Don't forget the yesterdays.

Remember the dreams we dreamed, together —
All of the joys we shared in getting to today.
Now, just one time, before you leave me . . .
Reach out, and take my hand . . . And, help me walk away.

For it's time for movin' on, my friend;
Hold back all the tears and sorrow.
It finally is time to go our separate ways.
And, I want to wish you well, my friend . . .
As we search for new tomorrows.
Go, as you must, but please . . .
Don't forget our yesterdays.

Making It A Night To Remember

Prom A Truly Royal Affair

This year's prom was at a different setting than in the past, it was held at Jumer's Chateau May 6th, 1989 and titled "Moon on Ice." An ice sculpture placed amongst the food fit perfectly with the theme.

This year's Queen and King were Sophia Fajardo and Jeff Holtebeck. Other members of the court included Princesses: Ann Baldoni, Caroline McCormack, Jenny Pruski, Amy Fritson, Mollie Fleming, and Cari Vanderbosch. Their escorts included: Cory Puyear, B.J. Armstrong, Allen DeVary, Brian Nourie, Dave Harter, and Andy Copenhaver.

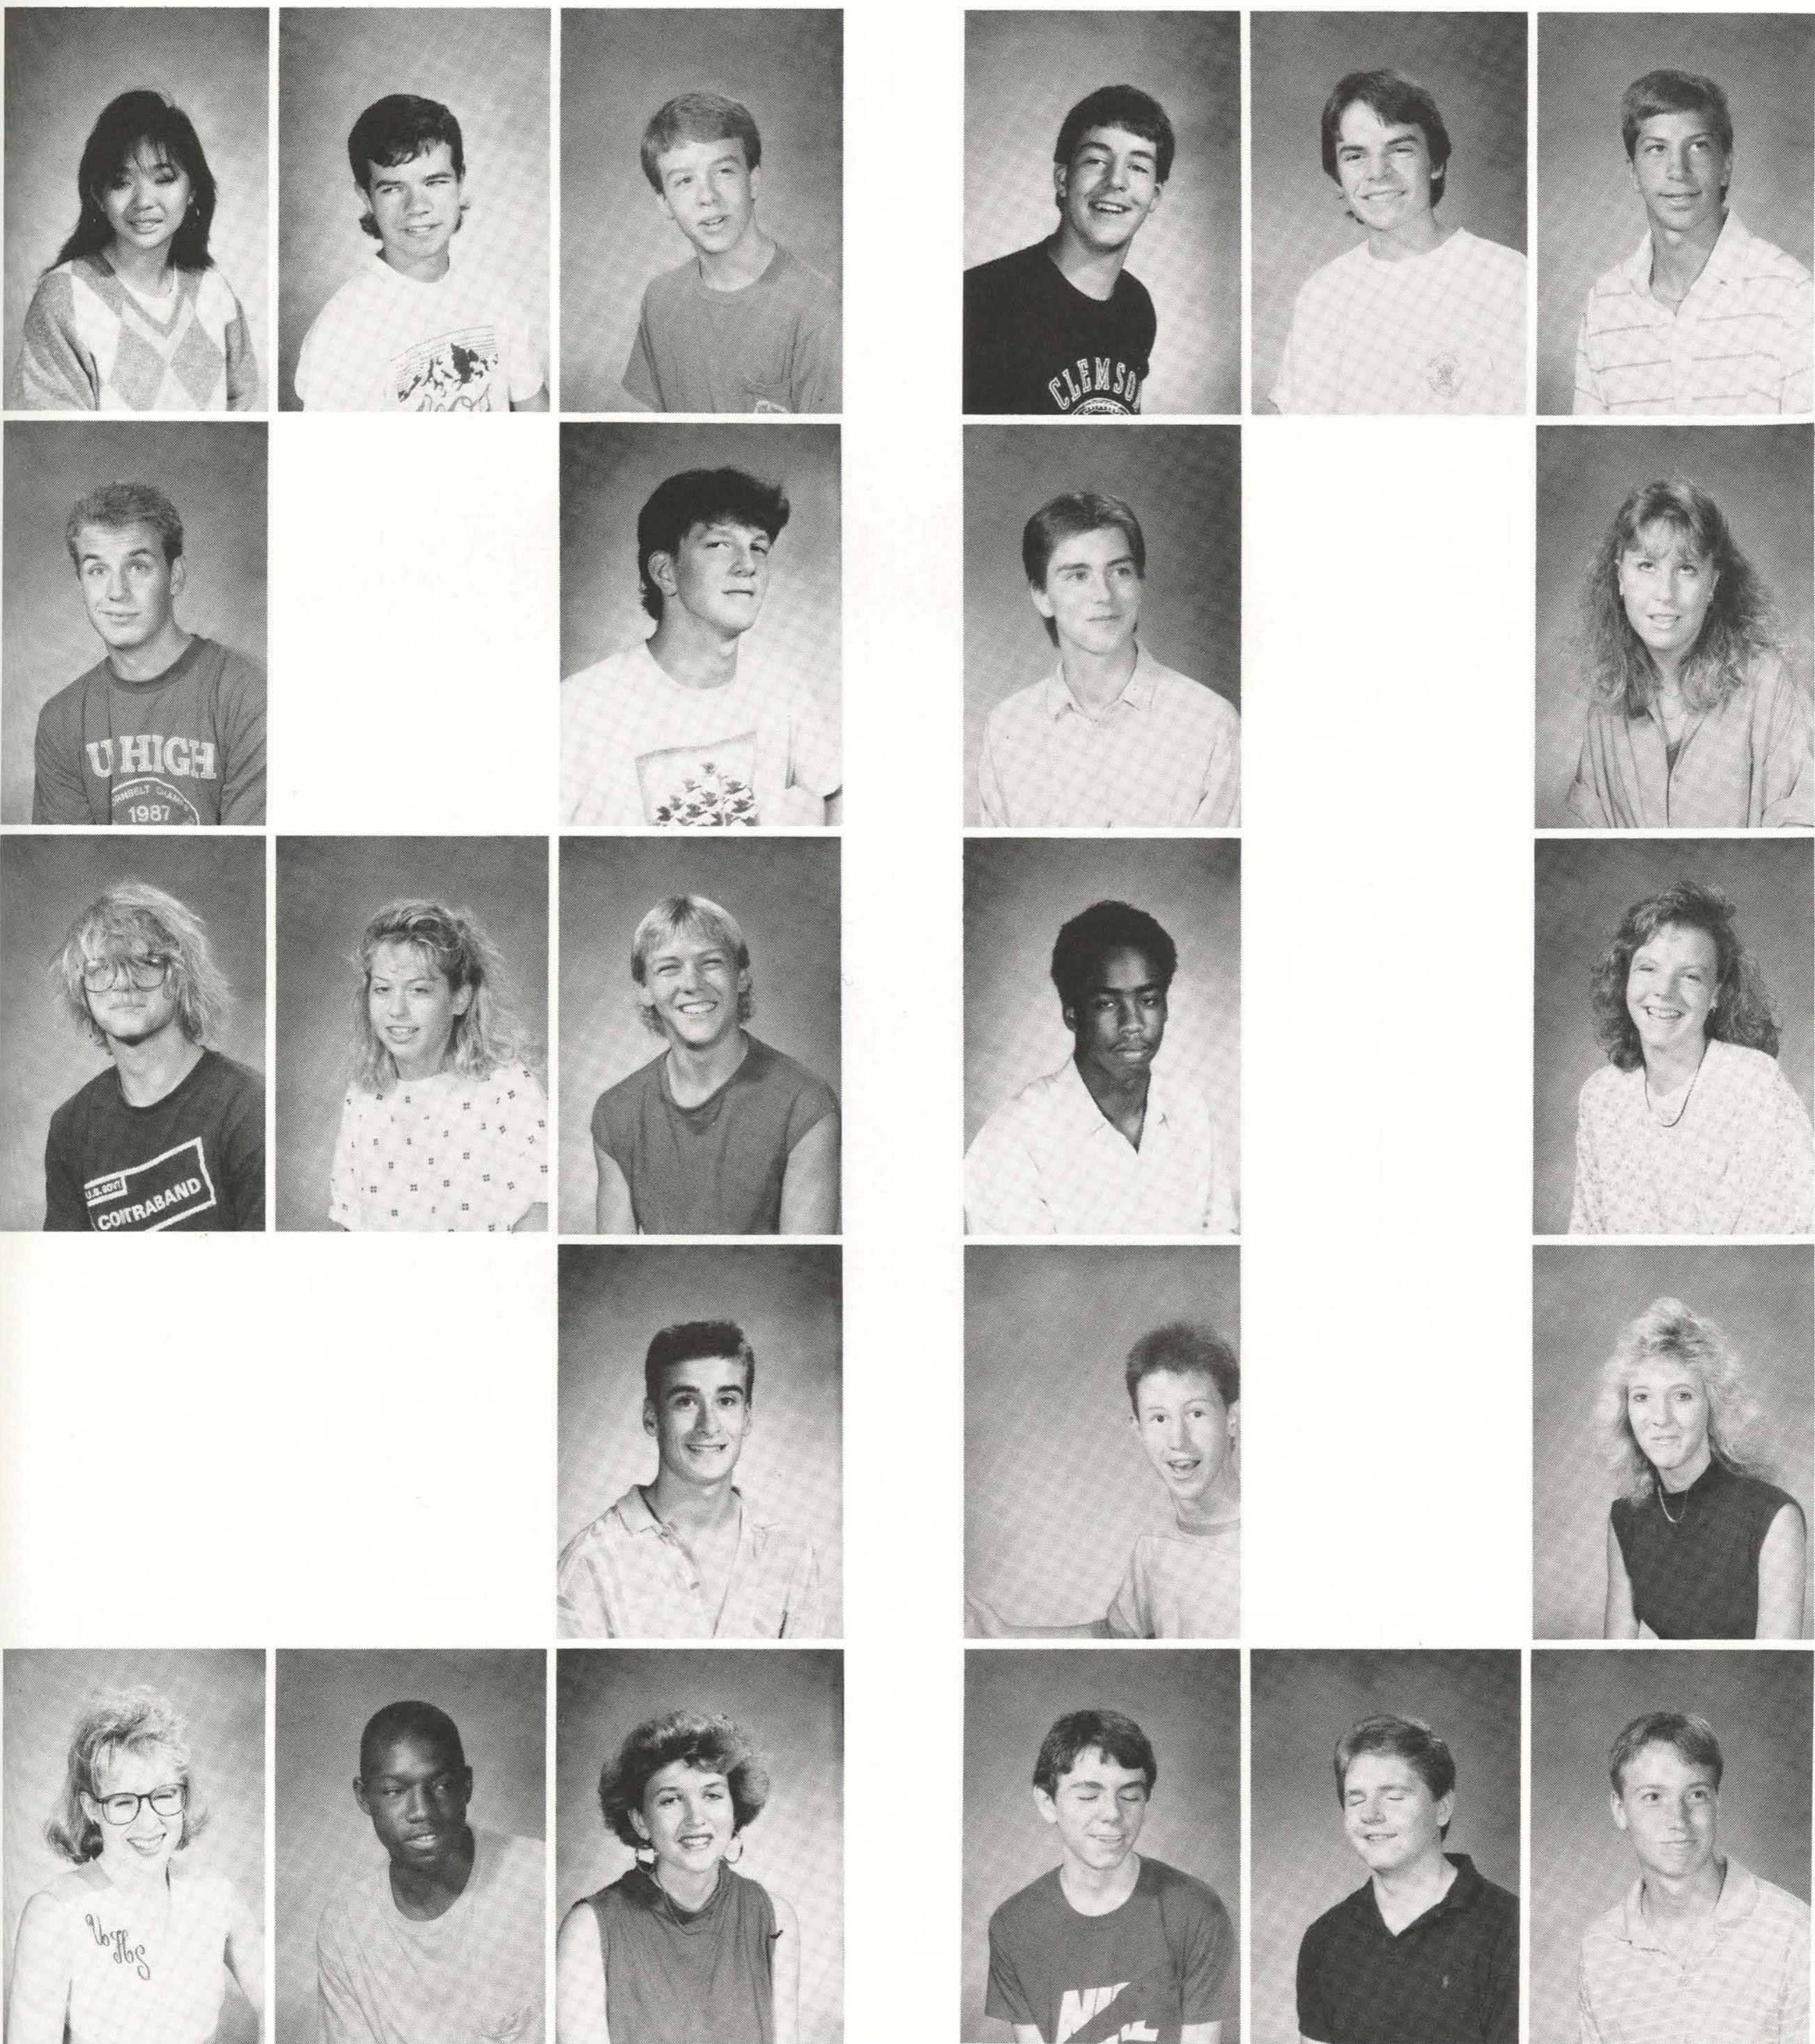

After Prom was held at Circle Lanes and included bowling, a casino, food, and a large auction at the end.

Faculty and Administration

When other schools talk about U-High, there is a sense of curiosity to know more about us.

U-High appears to be an enigma; others schools are not quite sure of where we "fit in" with the rest of the crowd. Not sure whether we are a public or private school, and not understanding what a laboratory school is, they continue to question who we are.

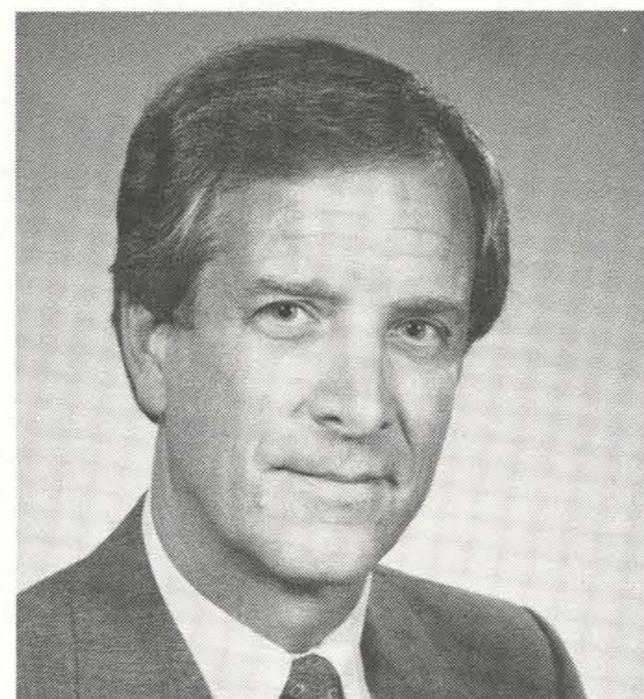

Part of why they may be curious about us may be due to our administration and faculty, very unique individuals well-suited for this very unique environment of progressive learning.

There is more to U-High than student teachers and college students wandering constantly down the halls; there is a sense of achievement in this school, that somewhere behind the scenes a lot of positive things are happening, happening because of the dedication and determination of this staff that these things need to occur if this school is to remain unique in education.

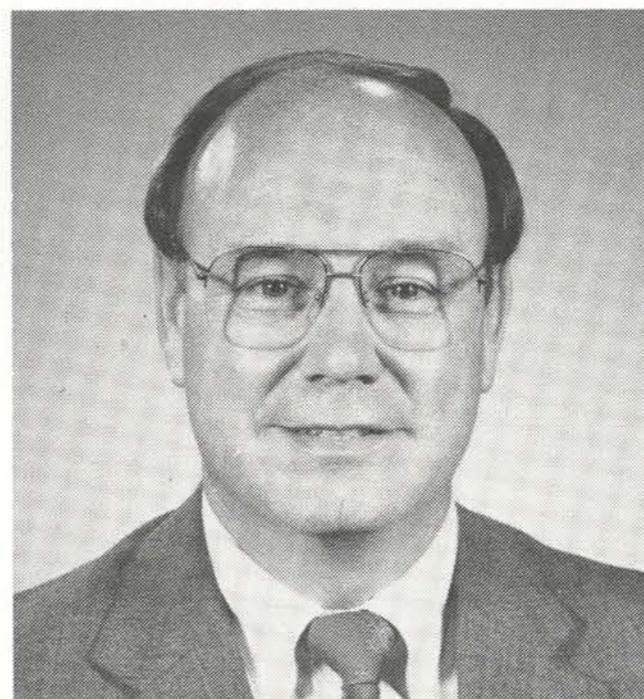

According to Frank Chiodo: "Wouldn't it be nice to be young always?" (photograph taken circa 1967.)

Editor's Note:

I hope this yearbook will be as enjoyable for you to read as it was to create. This year started with a new staff to train, but luckily we all knew what we wanted for a great yearbook. The staff spent that extra time, and I know it shows.
